

THE UINTA-WASATCH-CACHE NATIONAL FOREST IS SEEKING INDIVIDUALS FOR A RESOURCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE (RAC)

- Committee members meet at least once a year to review and recommend projects, provide public involvement opportunities, and monitor approved projects.
- Projects are funded based on national forest receipts through the Secure Rural Schools Act.
- Members serve a four-year term and are appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture.
- Members must reside in the State of Utah.
- Fifteen members will be selected for the committee with three additional members.
- Members will be split evenly between three categories; commercial/industry, conservation/social, and elected official/government (refer to application).

For additional information, and applications, visit: www.fs.fed.us/r4/uwc.

Applications will be accepted no later than April 30. E-mail to: lfclark@fs.fed.us, or mail to: Uinta-Wasatch-Cache National Forest, attn: Loyal Clark, 88 West 100 North, Provo, Utah 84601.

