2. As regards the new Contracting Parties to the HS Convention, the Committee is requested to note that Uzbekistan presently applies an HS-based (96 version) Customs tariff, though the Convention will not legally enter into force in respect of this Member until 1 January 2000. Venezuela notified the Secretariat that the Convention had entered into force in respect of it on 2 November 1998.
3. The Secretariat once again invited the Contracting Parties who had not yet notified the implementation of 1996 Amendments to clarify their position. Chad, Iran and Saudi Arabia confirmed their implementation. Thailand informed the Secretariat that it would implement the 96 Amendments on 1 January 1999, but has not yet confirmed it. Two Contracting Parties have not yet informed the Secretariat about the date of implementation.
4. Azerbaijan, Gambia, Guinea Bissau and Liberia have been added to the list of non-Contracting Party administrations using the HS as a basis for their Customs tariffs or statistical nomenclatures.
5. During the intersession, several administrations have sent the latest version of their HS-based Customs tariffs or statistical nomenclatures to the Secretariat. The Secretariat requests all administrations to provide a copy of the latest versions of their Customs tariffs or statistical nomenclatures to the Secretariat once they are updated.
