

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 27, 2001

The Speaker of the

House of Representatives

Sir:

I ask the Congress to consider the enclosed requests for FY 2002 budget amendments for the Department of Defense (DoD). These amendments would increase my proposed budget totals by $18.4 billion in support of national defense priorities.

In this amended DoD budget request, I am proposing a total of $328.9 billion in discretionary budget authority. This is $32.6 billion, or seven percent in real growth, above the FY 2001 enacted level of $296.3 billion and $18.4 billion more than included in my initial budget level of $310.5 billion.

The revised FY 2002 Budget begins to address severe shortfalls in readiness, healthcare, operations, maintenance, and infrastructure that my Administration inherited and that are far worse than originally understood. The amended budget's increase of $18.4 billion helps remedy previously underfunded programs, reduces critical military shortfalls, funds realistic reestimates of previously understated costs, and supports modernization programs consistent with the early results of Secretary Rumsfeld's ongoing strategy review.

The amended budget carefully targets resources to improve military morale, bolster readiness, and transform defense capabilities. It begins efforts to streamline and upgrade the deteriorating DoD infrastructure, which will help boost morale and readiness, support transformation, and ultimately save billions of dollars. And, it initiates several management reform initiatives to change the way DoD conducts business.

The details of these requests are set forth in the enclosed letter from the Director of the Office of Management and Budget. I concur with his comments and observations.

Sincerely,

Enclosure

THE DIRECTOR

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

June 27, 2001

The President

The White House

Submitted for your consideration are requests for the FY 2002 budget amendment for the Department of Defense (DoD). These amendments would increase your proposed budget totals by $18.4 billion in support of your national defense priorities.

The FY 2002 amended DoD budget requests a total of $328.9 billion in discretionary budget authority. This topline is $32.6 billion, or seven percent in real growth, above the FY 2001 enacted level of $296.3 billion and $18.4 billion more than your initial budget level of $310.5 billion. This increase is in addition to the $5.6 billion in your FY 2001 supplemental appropriations request for DoD, nearly all of which is for defense activities related to the quality of life and readiness of our military.

The amended FY 2002 Budget begins to address severe shortfalls in readiness, healthcare, operations, maintenance, and infrastructure that the Administration inherited and that are far worse than originally understood. The amended budget's increase of $18.4 billion helps remedy previously underfunded programs, reduces critical military shortfalls, funds realistic reestimates of previously understated costs, and supports modernization programs consistent with the early results of Secretary Rumsfeld's ongoing strategy review.

The amended budget carefully targets resources to restore military morale, bolster readiness, and transform defense capabilities. It also begins efforts to streamline and upgrade the deteriorating DoD infrastructure, which will help boost morale and readiness, support transformation, and ultimately save billions of dollars.

As described below, the proposed amendments include the following:

Military Personnel

To carry out your commitment to restore morale and provide a robust defense capability, the FY 2002 amended budget includes the largest boost in military pay and benefits in a generation.

- Military Compensation. The amended budget includes your $1.4 billion initiative for military compensation, which was included in the February Blueprint. The initiative funds a targeted pay raise – at least five percent for every service member and up to 10 percent for mid-grade officers and enlisted grades E-4 to E-9. The initiative would help to pay military people what is needed to attract, motivate, and retain the top quality people essential to the Nation's security.

- Housing Allowance. The amended budget increases housing allowances to enable military personnel and their families to afford acceptable private sector housing. It would reduce the service members' average out-of-pocket housing expenses from the current 15 percent to 11.3 percent in FY 2002 and eliminate the average out-of-pocket expense by FY 2005.

Operation and Maintenance

To bolster readiness, the FY 2002 amended DoD request funds flying hours, steaming hours, training, and other critical readiness-related programs. It includes robust funding for readiness training, base operations, spare parts, force protection, utilities, and training range repair and modernization.

- Readiness Training. The budget supports the Military Services' readiness training. It includes funds necessary to meet flying hour goals for the Air Force, Navy, and Marine Corps flight crews and covers the increasing costs to operate aging weapons systems for all Services.
- Defense Health Program. For the first time in recent years, the request would fund a realistic estimate of military healthcare costs. The FY 2002 amended budget includes funding for new benefits and realistic growth rates for both managed-care support contracts -- a 12-percent increase over the FY 2001 enacted level -- and pharmacy purchases -- a 15-percent increase over the FY 2001 enacted level.
- Maintenance. This budget revision makes a significant investment toward reducing the backlog of equipment maintenance and achieving optimal annual funding levels (e.g., aircraft maintenance for the Air Force would be increased from 85 to 92 percent of requirements and funding for the Navy would sustain ship maintenance at 90 percent of requirements).

Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation and Procurement

The budget accelerates the development and acquisition of capabilities especially appropriate for the 21st Century security environment, such as capabilities to locate and track targets more rapidly and on a global basis; strike with increased speed, higher precision, and at greater ranges; and capitalize on the aggregate power of networked forces.

- Procurement. The amended DoD budget aligns procurement programs and funding to provide balanced and strong support for both the U.S. military's short-term requirements and its long-term transformation. The budget emphasizes robust funding of systems that will continue to be necessary even with significant shifts in defense strategy, such as airlift assets. It supports overhauling systems that will continue to be central to our defense posture until the next generation of equipment is developed and fielded, and it inaugurates realistic pricing of major weapons programs, which should reduce program disruptions.

- Research, Development, Test and Evaluation (RDT&E). The amended budget builds upon the $2.6 billion RDT&E initiative for leap-ahead technologies included in your initial budget by targeting technologies with the greatest promise for transforming the U.S. defense posture. Within RDT&E, the budget includes $8.8 billion for Science and Technology, which funds basic and applied research and development of technologies and prototype subsystems that are the key to fielding future leap-ahead systems.
- Information and Space Capabilities. The budget includes substantial increases for information and space capabilities, both critical to deterrence and warfighting, and provides unique advantages for the United States and its allies. America's growing dependence on information and space capabilities necessitates greater assurance that these capabilities will remain effective against any prospective threat. The budget emphasizes situational awareness, attack warning, protection of assets, prevention of unintended use, and counters to likely future threats.
- Missile Defense. The amended budget request advances your commitment to build effective missile defenses based on the best available technologies, deployed at the earliest possible date. The budget includes a total of $7.0 billion for the Ballistic Missile Defense Organization (BMDO) and $1.3 billion for lower-tier programs funded within the Service accounts. It emphasizes a new approach focused on an expanded, robust RDT&E program with flexibility to pursue the most promising developments. The Airborne Laser, Space-Based Laser, and Space-Based Infra-Red System (SBIRS)-Low programs are merged into BMDO's missile defense program.
- Strategic Forces and Precision Strike. The budget begins implementation of your initiative to reshape U.S. strategic and tactical nuclear forces for the post-Cold War world by beginning to convert two TRIDENT submarines to cruise missile-carrying submarines and by initiating the retirement of Peacekeeper missiles.
- Future Threat Initiatives. The revised budget initiates funding for programs that the ongoing strategy review has identified as especially critical to countering threats that appear likely in the future. Examples include close-in ship self-defense improvements, E-2C radar modernization, chemical/biological vaccines, and miniature munitions development. Through this initiative, the budget accelerates the transformation of U.S. forces by focusing on global joint response forces, capabilities encompassing the full spectrum of conflict (from a major conflict to peacetime activities), and transforming early-entry forces first.

Military Construction and Family Housing

The amended defense budget includes a robust $5.9 billion Military Construction program to upgrade and maintain a streamlined facilities inventory. The budget moves the Department toward restoring or eliminating the most seriously degraded facilities. Key to the long-range goal will be the Efficient Facilities Initiative in which the Administration plans to reduce DoD facilities by 25 percent and, ultimately, to save $3.5 billion annually. Another long-range goal is to reduce the facilities' replacement age from the FY 2001 unacceptable recapitalization rate of 192 years to a rate that more closely approximates commercial standards. The increase in military construction funding in this amended budget reduces this recapitalization rate for FY 2002 to 101 years.

The amended defense budget includes $4.1 billion for Family Housing and begins new and intensive measures to improve the quality of military housing and accelerate elimination of substandard housing. It provides $1.1 billion to construct or renovate about 6,500 family housing units and privatize another 30,000 plus units. It includes your $400 million initiative to improve housing for military personnel and their families ($293.2 million for family housing and $106.8 million for barracks).

Management Initiatives

The amended budget reflects efforts to change the way the Department does business. These efforts include more competition and outsourcing, more commercialization, and other innovations to ensure more efficient use of Defense resources. The amended budget includes $100 million for reforming DoD's financial management. It requests flexibility to accomplish the depot maintenance workload in a more efficient manner. It also would enable the Department to acquire services in an efficient business-like or commercial manner applicable to construction and service requirements.

Revolving and Management Funds

The amended budget requests appropriations totaling $1.9 billion for the Defense Working Capital Funds, including:

- $639 million to recover prior-year losses in the Defense Logistics Agency due to actual fuel prices being above the budgeted rate and $19.2 million for price increases in natural gas and electricity;
- $100 million requested to augment the Army's spares at their supply activities and to reduce backorders in aviation spares;
- $1.1 billion for operations of the Defense Commissaries; and,
- $93 million for additional war reserve material.

General Provisions

The amended budget request includes several proposed general provisions, including amendments related to the Davis-Bacon Act, depot maintenance, and the costs related to the collision with the EHIME MARU.

Recommendation

I have carefully reviewed these proposals and am satisfied that they are necessary at this time. Therefore, I join the Secretary of Defense in recommending that you transmit the proposals to the Congress.

Sincerely,

(In the appropriations language under the above heading, delete "to Section 229(b) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 429(b)),".)

The amended budget changes or aligns resources to reflect President Bush's defense initiatives, final program cost initiatives, and several initial recommendations from Secretary Rumsfeld's ongoing strategy review.

The revised request:

- Funds pay and allowances to support an active duty end strength of 480,000.
- Includes the Army's portion, $407 million, of the President's $1.4 billion initiative to improve and target pay raises. This initiative will enhance recruiting and retention by fundamentally changing the enlisted pay structure, altering the shape of the earnings profile, and increasing pay for senior enlisted personnel and mid-grade officers.
- Provides $0.8 billion to improve retention and recruit soldiers of high quality and with critical skills -- through a robust program of Selective Reenlistment Bonuses, Enlistment Bonuses, and other incentive programs.

The amended budget changes or aligns resources to reflect President Bush's defense initiatives, final program cost initiatives, and several initial recommendations from Secretary Rumsfeld's ongoing strategy review.

The revised request:

- Funds pay and allowances to support an active duty end strength of 358,800.
- Includes the Air Force's portion, $339 million, of the President's $1.4 billion initiative to improve and target pay raises. This initiative will enhance recruiting and retention by fundamentally changing the enlisted pay structure, altering the shape of the earnings profile, and increasing pay for senior enlisted personnel and mid-grade officers.
- Fully funds recruiting and retention programs. While the President's pay initiative will enhance overall pay levels, the Department must maintain a robust program of Enlistment Bonuses to attract the best applicants, especially in hard to fill mechanical and technical skills. Selective Reenlistment Bonuses, Aviation Continuation Pay, Judge Advocate and Medical Continuation Pays are critical to retaining our highly trained force and maintaining readiness at the level required to support the National Military Strategy.

(Insert the following new General Provisions following Section 8069:)

SEC. 8070. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, from funds appropriated in this or any other Act under the heading, "Aircraft Procurement, Air Force," that remain available for obligation, not to exceed $16,000,000 shall be available for recording, adjusting, and liquidating obligations for the C-17 aircraft properly chargeable to the fiscal year 1998 Aircraft Procurement, Air Force account: Provided, That the Secretary of the Air Force shall notify the congressional defense committees of all of the specific sources of funds to be used for such purpose.

This provision is required to provide funds in the amount of $16 million to pay a negotiated settlement of a request for equitable adjustment from Boeing on the C-17 program.

SEC. 8071. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, from funds appropriated in this or any other Act under the heading, "Missile Procurement, Air Force," that remain available for obligation, not to exceed $50,000,000 shall be available for recording, adjusting, and liquidating obligations properly chargeable to fiscal year 1997 and 1998 Missile Procurement, Air Force accounts: Provided, That the Secretary of the Air Force shall notify the congressional defense committees of all of the specific sources of funds to be used for such purpose.

This provision is required because satellites purchased in FY 1997 and FY 1998 require modifications for correct operation, and there are insufficient unobligated Missile Procurement, Air Force funds in the years required. The modifications do not modify the originally specified form, fit, or function nor do they exceed the general scope of the contract.

SEC. 8072. Of the amounts appropriated in this Act under the heading, "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy," $800,000,000 shall be available until September 30, 2002, to fund prior year shipbuilding cost increases: Provided, That upon enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall transfer such funds to the following appropriations in the amounts specified: Provided further, That the amounts transferred shall be merged with and be available for the same purposes as the appropriations to which transferred:

To:

Under the heading, "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy, 1995/02":

Carrier Replacement Program, $172,364,000;

Under the heading, "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy, 1996/02":

LPD-17 Amphibious Transport Dock Ship Program, $247,989,000;

Under the heading, "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy, 1997/02":

DDG-51 Destroyer Program, $37,200,000;

Under the heading, "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy, 1998/02":

NSSN Program, $168,561,000;

DDG-51 Destroyer Program, $111,457,000;

Under the heading, "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy, 1999/02":

NSSN Program, $62,429,000.

This language is required to allow $800 million of the funds appropriated in FY 2002 to be used to finance increases in the cost of completing prior-year shipbuilding programs.

(TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8073. Upon enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall make the following transfers of funds: Provided, That the amounts transferred shall be available for the same purposes as the appropriations to which transferred, and for the same time period as the appropriation from which transferred: Provided further, That the amounts shall be transferred between the following appropriations in the amount specified:

From:

Under the heading, "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy, 1990/2002":

TRIDENT ballistic missile submarine program, $78,000;
SSN-21 attack submarine program, $66,000;
DDG-51 destroyer program, $6,100,000;
ENTERPRISE refueling/modernization program, $964,000;
LSD-41 dock landing ship cargo variant ship program, $237,000;
MCM mine countermeasures program, $118,000;
Oceanographic ship program, $2,317,000;
AOE combat support ship program, $164,000;
AO conversion program, $56,000;
Coast Guard icebreaker ship program, $863,000;
Craft, outfitting, post delivery, and ship special support equipment, $529,000;

To:

Under the heading, "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy, 1998/2002":

DDG-51 destroyer program, $11,492,000;

From:

Under the heading, "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy, 1993/2002":

DDG-51 destroyer program, $3,986,000;
LHD-1 amphibious assault ship program, $85,000;
LSD-41 dock landing ship cargo variant program, $428,000;
AOE combat support ship program, $516,000;
Craft, outfitting, post delivery, and first destination transportation, and inflation adjustments, $1,034,000;

To:

Under the heading, "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy, 1998/2002":

DDG-51 destroyer program, $6,049,000.

This provision is required to complete the transfer of assets identified within the Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy appropriation that will expire at the end of FY 2002 to finance unfunded within scope cost increases to prior-year shipbuilding programs.

SEC. 8074. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the administration of the TRICARE program, the Secretary of Defense shall not use payment rates other than payment rates used by the Medicare program, or similar rates based on Medicare payment methods, to pay for health care services for civilian sector institutional and other non-institutional providers, except for services for which the Secretary determines the use of such Medicare rates or methods is impracticable: Provided, That the Secretary shall as a condition of participation prohibit balance billing of beneficiaries by institutional providers and limit balance billing by non-institutional providers (subject to any exceptions the Secretary determines appropriate) consistent with the Medicare limiting charge percentage.

This general provision would reinforce and expedite reform of TRICARE payment methods. Under 10 U.S.C. 1079(j)(2), the Secretary of Defense "may" by regulation adopt payment methodologies used by the Medicare program for purposes of paying civilian sector institutional providers under CHAMPUS/TRICARE. Under 10 U.S.C. 1079(h), similar authority is provided for health care professionals and other non-institutional providers.

CHAMPUS has already issued regulations adopting Medicare prospective payment methods for hospital care, health care professionals, and several other categories of care, resulting in substantial DoD savings. Medicare payment reforms applicable to nursing homes, outpatient hospital department services, and durable medical equipment provide additional opportunities for DoD savings. DoD has begun the lengthy regulatory process to implement payment reforms for these providers under TRICARE. This general provision would reinforce and expedite implementation of these reforms. This would facilitate early adoption by DoD of Medicare's prospective payment rates for nursing homes, which will become high volume TRICARE providers in FY 2002, coincident with reinstatement of TRICARE coverage for Medicare-eligible beneficiaries. It will also permit prompt implementation of payment methods similar to those used by Medicare to pay for hospital based outpatient services, such as laboratory and radiology, as well as durable medical equipment and similar products.

The provision would also prohibit balance billing of beneficiaries by institutional providers for any amount in excess of the CHAMPUS/TRICARE payment amount, and limit balance billing by non-institutional providers to the 15 percent rate allowed by Medicare.

SEC. 8075. MODIFICATION OF LIMITATION ON RETIREMENT OR DISMANTLEMENT OF STRATEGIC NUCLEAR DELIVERY SYSTEMS.

Section 1302(a) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1998 (Public Law 105-85; 111 Stat. 1948), as amended by section 1501(a) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2000 (Public Law 106-65; 113 Stat. 806), is further amended by striking paragraph (1)(D).

This provision would eliminate the prohibition on using funds to retire or dismantle Peacekeeper intercontinental ballistic missiles below certain levels.

SEC. 8076. Of the funds appropriated by this Act under the heading, "Operation and Maintenance, Navy," $56,000,000 shall remain available until expended, only for costs associated with the stabilization, return, refitting, necessary force protection upgrades, and repair of the USS COLE: Provided, That the Secretary of Defense may transfer these funds to appropriations accounts for procurement and that the funds transferred shall be merged with and shall be available for the same purposes and for the same period as the appropriation to which transferred: Provided further, That the transfer authority provided in this section is in addition to any other transfer authority available to the Department of Defense.

This provision is required to accommodate shipyard scheduling adjustments and to allow for any unforeseen equipment replacements associated with returning the USS COLE to service in FY 2002.

SEC. 8077. The Secretary of the Navy may settle, or compromise, and pay any and all admiralty claims under 10 U.S.C. 7622 arising out of the collision involving the USS GREENEVILLE and the EHIME MARU, in any amount and without regard to the monetary limitations in subsections (a) and (b) of that section: Provided, That such payments shall be made from funds available to the Department of the Navy for operation and maintenance.

This provision would permit the Navy to settle, or compromise, and pay any and all claims arising from the USS GREENEVILLE collision. This authority is currently limited to $1,000,000.

SEC. 8078. DAVIS BACON ACT THRESHOLD INCREASE

(a) Beginning in fiscal year 2002 and thereafter, as applied only to the Department of Defense, section 1(a) of the Act of March 3, 1931, as amended (popularly known as the Davis Bacon Act, 40 U.S.C. 276a(a)), shall be deemed to be amended by deleting "$2,000" in the first sentence and substituting "$1,000,000".

(b) The amounts appropriated in title II of the Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 2002, and the amounts appropriated in the Military Construction Appropriations Act, 2002, are hereby reduced by a total of $190,000,000 to reflect savings resulting from enactment of subsection (a).

This provision would raise the threshold for application of the Davis Bacon Act to contracts over $1,000,000 for the Department of Defense. The amendment would save money, simplify construction contracting procedures, and encourage wider participation by the small business construction sector.

SEC. 8079. DEPOT MAINTENANCE UTILIZATION WAIVER

(a) Subsection (c) of 10 U.S.C. 2466 is amended by striking "the waiver is" after "if the Secretary determines that" and inserting "a depot is fully utilized within existing resources and, where multiple depots are capable of performing the same maintenance activities that the utilization of another such depot is uneconomical, or that the waiver is otherwise".

(b) The amounts appropriated in title II of this Act are hereby reduced by a total of $140,000,000 to reflect savings resulting from enactment of subsection (a).

The Department of Defense is committed to fully utilizing its organic depots in order to maintain a core logistics capability. There are circumstances, however, when a depot is utilized to its maximum capability and, because of the limitations imposed by 10 U.S.C. 2466, the Department is prohibited from contracting out the work. The work must still be performed by in-house depots, resulting in delays and excess costs. This provision would expand the waiver authority, permitting the Secretaries to waive the limitation once a depot has achieved full utilization. This would result in savings to the customers and in more timely accomplishment of the work. In situations where multiple depots can perform the same type of maintenance activity, it may not be economical to transfer the work from a fully-utilized depot to one that is operating at less than maximum capacity but in a different geographic region. The Secretary may waive the limitations if he makes a determination that it would be uneconomical, due to reasons such as cost or logistical constraints, to transfer such workload.

Sec. 8080. Notwithstanding section 229(a) of the Social Security Act, no wages shall be deemed to have been paid to any individual pursuant to that section in any calendar year after 2001.

This provision states that the additional Social Security wage credit for uniformed services members shall not be granted after 2001.
