

FIG. 29.—Plankton dominated by half-grown Calanus finmarchicus, Massachusetts Bay, May 4, 1915 (station 10266), vertical haul from 125-0 meters. $\times 9$

FIG. 30.—Plankton dominated by large Calanus finmarchicus off Cape Cod, July 22, 1916, haul from 40-0 meters (station 10344). This sample is from the most productive catch of Calanus yet made in the Gulf of Maine. $\times 9$