

WANT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT YOUR VETERAN PATIENT?

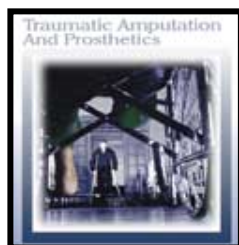

The fifteen independent study courses available through VA's Veteran's Health Initiative (VHI) provide in-depth information about important and unique health issues of veterans and their subsequent health care needs. These courses deliver important education and information in the specified areas and help prepare you to better serve your veteran patients

Veterans Health Initiative

Military Sexual Trauma

Traumatic Amputation and Prosthetics

Hearing Impairment

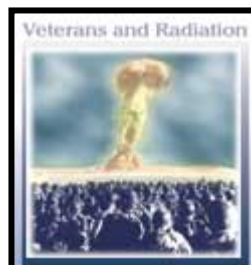

Agent Orange

Ex-Prisoners of War

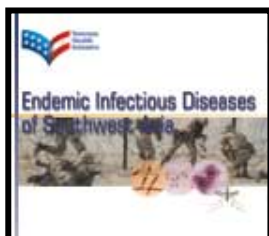

Gulf War

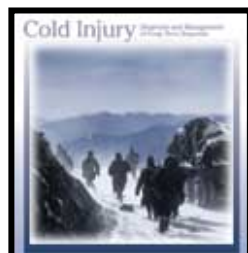

Radiation

Health Effects from Chemical, Biological, and Radiological Weapons

Endemic Infectious Diseases of Southwest Asia

Cold Injury

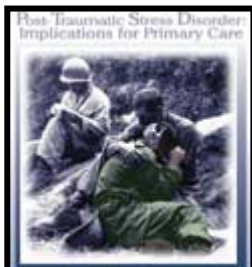

Traumatic Brain Injury

Caring for the War Wounded

Spinal Cord Injury

Post Traumatic Stress Disorder

Visual Impairment

Department of Veterans Affairs
Veterans Health Administration
Office of Public Health and Environmental Hazards (13)

<http://www1.va.gov/EnvironAgents/page.cfm?pg=7>
<http://vaww1.va.gov/EnvironAgents/page.cfm?pg=7>

June 2007

LOCAL CONTACT: Employee Education System (EES) – Education Contact