§ 875.102

§875.102 Where do I send benefit claims?

You must submit your benefit claims to the FLTCIP Carrier or its designee.

§ 875.103 Do I need to authorize release of my medical records when I file a claim?

Yes, if you file a claim for benefits, the Carrier needs to have a valid authorization from you to release your medical records.

§875.104 What are the steps required to resolve a dispute involving benefit eligibility or payment of a claim?

- (a) If you dispute the Carrier's denial of your eligibility for benefits or your claim for payment of benefits, you must first send a written request for reconsideration to the Carrier no later than 60 days from the date of its decision.
- (b) The Carrier must provide you with written notice of its review decision no later than 60 days after the date it receives your reconsideration request.
- (c) If the Carrier upholds its denial (or does not respond within 60 days), you have the right to appeal its reconsideration decision. You must make this appeal in writing within 60 days from the date of the Carrier's notice upholding its decision. You will be notified of the decision on your appeal in writing no later than 60 days from receipt of your appeal request.

(d) If a denial of your eligibility for benefits or a denial of your claim is upheld upon appeal due to the evaluation of your medical condition/functional capacity, the Carrier will inform you that you may request that an independent third party, mutually agreed to by OPM and the Carrier, review the decision. You must make this request in writing within 60 days from the date of the notice informing you of the appeal decision. The independent third party must notify you in writing of its decision no later than 60 days from the Carrier's or its designee's receipt of your request for appeal to the third party. This is the final administrative remedy available to you. The decision of the independent third party is final and binding on the Carrier.

(e) You may seek judicial review of the final administrative denial of a claim. Such action may not be brought prior to exhaustion of the administrative process provided in this section. To pursue such judicial review, you must bring legal action against the Carrier in an appropriate United States district court within 2 years from the date of the final decision. You may not sue OPM, the independent reviewer, or any other entity. If you prevail in court, your recovery is limited to the amount of benefits payable under your benefit booklet and schedule of benefits.

§875.105 May OPM correct errors?

OPM may order correction of administrative errors after reviewing evidence and finding that it would be against equity and good conscience not to do so.

§ 875.106 What responsibilities do agencies have under this Program?

Federal agencies and uniformed services establishments are responsible for:

- (a) Providing access to information about the FLTCIP to eligible individuals:
- (b) Responding to questions from the Carrier, including questions on the employment status of an applicant or enrollee:
- (c) Providing reports as OPM requires;
- (d) Complying with Benefits Administration Letters and other OPM issuances/instructions; and
- (e) Deducting premiums as authorized by a workforce member and as requested by the Carrier, when possible.

§ 875.107 What are OPM's responsibilities as regulator under this Program?

Consistent with the authority and discretion given to OPM by the FLTCIP law, OPM's responsibilities include those functions typically associated with, and preemptive of, State insurance regulatory authorities such as:

- (a) Reviewing and approving the content and format of materials associated with the FLTCIP pursuant to section 9008(d) of title 5, United States Code;
- (b) Reviewing and approving rates, forms, and marketing materials; and
