

§ 875.304

paid in advance for the period following the effective date of your cancellation will be refunded to you.

(d) Any premiums you paid will be returned if you cancel coverage within the “free look” period specified in the benefit booklet.

§ 875.304 How does the Carrier account for FLTCIP funds?

The Carrier must keep account of all funds received under this section separate from all other funds. The Carrier may use FLTCIP funds only for purposes specifically related to the FLTCIP.

Subpart D—Coverage

§ 875.401 How do I apply for coverage?

(a) To apply for coverage, you must complete the application in a form appropriate for your eligibility status as prescribed by the Carrier and approved by OPM.

(b) If you are the qualified relative of a workforce member, you may apply for coverage even if the workforce member does not apply for coverage.

§ 875.402 When will open seasons be held?

(a) The first open season for enrollment under this section began July 1, 2002, as described in a FEDERAL REGISTER Notice (67 FR 43691, June 28, 2002), including the open season ending date(s) and which eligible individuals may apply based on abbreviated underwriting.

(b) There are no regularly scheduled open seasons for long term care insurance. OPM will announce any subsequent open seasons via a FEDERAL REGISTER Notice. The Notice will include the requirements for applicants during the open season.

§ 875.403 May I apply for coverage outside of an open season?

If you are eligible for coverage, you may submit an application at any time outside of an open season. You will be subject to full underwriting requirements.

5 CFR Ch. I (1–1–05 Edition)

§ 875.404 What is the effective date of coverage?

(a) The effective dates of coverage under open season enrollments will be announced in a FEDERAL REGISTER Notice that announces open season dates.

(b)(1) If you enroll at any time outside of an open season, your coverage effective date is the 1st day of the month after the date your application is approved.

(2) If you are a Federal civilian or Postal employee or member of the uniformed services and you are applying for coverage under abbreviated underwriting, you also must be actively at work on your coverage effective date for your coverage to become effective. If your coverage effective date falls on a weekend or holiday, you must be actively at work on the last workday before that date for coverage to become effective. You must inform the Carrier if you are not actively at work on your coverage effective date. In that event, the Carrier will issue you a revised effective date, which will be the 1st day of the month after the date you return to being actively at work. You also must be actively at work on any revised effective date for coverage to become effective, or you will be issued another revised effective date in the same manner.

§ 875.405 If I marry, may my new spouse apply for coverage?

(a)(1) If you are a Federal civilian or Postal employee or member of the uniformed services and you have married, your spouse is eligible to submit an application for coverage under this section within 60 days from the date of your marriage, and will be subject to the underwriting requirements in force for the spouses of civilian employees and members of the uniformed services during the most recent open season. You, however, are not eligible for abbreviated underwriting because of your marriage. You may apply for coverage along with your spouse, but full underwriting will be required for you.

(2) After 60 days, your spouse may still apply for coverage but will be subject to full underwriting. Your new qualified relatives (such as parents-in-law) may apply for coverage with full
