

so transferred; and for accounting for and depositing in the respective funds all agency contributions. The agency shall furnish the employee with specific information as to how, when, and where the payments are to be submitted.

(c) Coverage. Employee payments are currently deposited if received by the agency before, during, or within 3 months after the end of the pay period covered thereby. Failure to deposit the payment currently terminates a transferred employee's retirement, health benefits, and group life insurance coverage on the last day of the pay period for which payments were currently deposited, subject to a 31-day extension of group life insurance and health benefits coverage as provided in parts 870 and 890 of this chapter and to the conversion benefits provided in parts 870 and 890 of this chapter. Coverage so terminated may not attach again before the employee actually enters on duty on his first day in a pay status in an agency. However, terminated civil service retirement, health benefits, and group life insurance coverage shall be reinstated retroactively when, in the judgment of OPM, the failure to make the required current deposit was due to circumstances beyond the control of the employee and the required payments were deposited at the first opportunity. Coverage under a system other than the civil service retirement system shall be reinstated retroactively if the agency which administers the retirement system determines that the failure to make the required current deposit was due to circumstances beyond the control of the employee and the required payments were deposited at the first opportunity.

§ 352.310 Equalization allowance.

(a) An employee transferred to an international organization is entitled to be paid in accordance with paragraphs (a)(1) through (4) of this section, an amount equal to the difference between the pay, allowances, post differential, and other monetary benefits paid by the international organizations and the pay, allowances, post differential, and other monetary benefits that would have been paid by the agency had he been detailed to the international organization under section 3343 of title 5, United States Code, (i) on reemployment; or (ii) on his death which occurs during the period of transfer or during the period after separation from an international organization when he is exercising or could exercise his reemployment rights.

(1) To determine the difference, the Department of State defines pay (i) for the Federal Government, as the amount paid an employee before the deduction of State and local taxes, but after the deduction of hypothetical U.S. Federal tax using the standard deduction considering the number of exemptions and appropriate tax table prescribed by the Department; (ii) for international organizations following the Common System of Salaries and Allowances of the United Nations and Specialized Agencies, as the amount actually paid to the employee after the deduction of the Staff Assessment; (iii) for other international organizations, as the amount actually paid to the employee. In cases where pay is subject to State and local taxes, this shall be the pay before the deduction of the taxes.

(2) Allowances, post differential, and other monetary benefits are defined by the Secretary of State as follows:

(i) Federal Government: The amount that would have been paid under sections 5921-5925 of title 5, United States Code, applicable provisions of chapters 100, 200, and 500 of the Standardized Regulations (Government Civilians Foreign Areas) and implementing agency regulations had the employee been detailed to the international organization under section 3343 of title 5, United States Code;

(ii) International organizations following the Common System of Salaries and Allowances of the United Nations and Specialized Agencies: The amount paid under pertinent provisions of the Staff Regulations and Rules of the United Nations and the Specialized Agencies;

(iii) Other international organizations not under the Common System of Salaries and Allowances of the United Nations and Specialized Agencies: The amount paid under pertinent conditions of service applied by the organizations as determined to be appropriate by the releasing agency with the concurrence of the Secretary of State.

(3) Travel and subsistence expenses, transportation of effects, and leave are not considered monetary benefits for purposes of this section.

(4) In exceptional circumstances where a hardship or an inequity would otherwise occur the Secretary of State, on the recommendation of the head of the agency, may specify allowances or other monetary benefits in lieu of or in addition to those specified above.

(b) Authoritative information on pay, allowances, post differential, and other monetary benefits as defined in paragraph (a) of this section for the Federal Government and the international organizations is maintained currently by the Department of State and is made available on request to any Federal department, agency, or employee concerned.

(c) Agency and employee responsibilities for reporting and documenting payments received from international organizations are specified in the Federal Personnel Manual.

§ 352.311 Reemployment.

(a) A transferred employee is entitled to be reemployed in his or her former position or one of like seniority, status, and pay within 30 days of his or her application for reemployment if he or she meets the following conditions:

(1) He or she is separated, either voluntarily or involuntarily, within his or her term of employment with an international organization; and

(2) He or she applies for reemployment to his or her former agency or its successor no later than 90 days after his or her separation.

(b) When an employee's right is to a position in the SES, reemployment or return may be to any position in the SES for which the employee is qualified. The employee shall be returned at not less than the SES pay level at which the employee was being paid immediately before his or her transfer, or if pay has been adjusted under § 352.314(c), at not less than the adjusted pay level.

[51 FR 25188, July 11, 1986, as amended at 58 FR 58261, Nov. 1, 1993]

§ 352.312 When to apply.

An employee may apply for reemployment either before or after separation by the international organization. If he applies before separation, the 30-day period prescribed in § 352.311 begins either within the date of the application or 30 days before the employee's date of separation, whichever is later.

§ 352.313 Failure to reemploy and right of appeal.

(a) When an agency fails to reemploy an employee within 30 days of his/her application, it shall notify him/her in writing of the reasons and of his/her right to appeal to the Merit Systems Protection Board under the provisions of the Board's regulations. The agency shall comply with the provisions of § 1201.21 of this title.

(b) If the agency fails to reach and issue a decision to the employee within 30 days from his/her application for reemployment, the employee is entitled to appeal the failure of the agency to the Merit Systems Protection Board under the provisions of the Board's regulations.

(c) An appeal alleging that the agency has failed to comply with any of the other provisions of sections 3343 and 3581-3584 of title 5, United States Code, or of this part may be submitted to the Merit Systems Protection Board under the provisions of the Board's regulations.

§ 352.314 Consideration for promotion and pay increases.

(a) Each agency shall consider each employee detailed or transferred to an international organization for all promotions for which he would be considered were he not absent. A promotion based on this consideration is effective on the date it would have been made if the employee were not absent.

(b) When the position of an employee absent on detail or transfer to an international organization is regraded upward during his absence, his agency
