

Office of Personnel Management

§ 731.402

for adverse impact to the efficiency of the service.

(b) Investigative requirements. Persons receiving an appointment made subject to investigation shall undergo a background investigation, the scope and coverage of which shall be determined by OPM in accordance with the level of risk determined by the agency.

(c) Suitability reinvestigations. (1) Every incumbent of a competitive service position:

(i) Designated High Risk under paragraph (a) of this section, or

(ii) That is a law enforcement or public safety position designated Moderate Risk under paragraph (a) of this section, shall be subject to a periodic re-investigation of a scope established by OPM 5 years after placement, and at least once each succeeding 5 years.

(2) Periodic reinvestigations required by paragraph (c)(1) of this section may be adjudicated by the employing agency according to the procedures in this part, if applicable.

§ 731.303 Actions by OPM and other agencies.

(a) For a period of one year after the effective date of an appointment subject to investigation under § 731.301, OPM may instruct an agency to remove an appointee when it finds that the appointee is unsuitable for any of the reasons cited in § 731.202.

(b) Thereafter, OPM may require the removal of an employee on the basis of either intentional false statement or deception or fraud in examination or appointment; or refusal to furnish testimony; or statutory or regulatory bar.

(c) An action to remove an appointee or employee taken pursuant to an instruction by OPM is not an action under part 752, or §§ 315.804 through 315.806 of part 315, of this chapter.

(d) When OPM instructs an agency to remove an appointee or employee under this part it shall notify the agency and the appointee or employee of its decision in writing.

(e) Before OPM, or any agency having delegated authority from OPM under this part, shall take a final suitability action against an applicant, eligible, appointee, or employee under this part, the person against whom the action is proposed shall be given notice of the proposed action (including the availability for review, upon request, of the materials relied upon), an opportunity to answer, notice of the final decision on the action, and notice of rights of appeal, if any, all in accordance with this part.

§ 731.304 Debarment.

(a) When OPM finds a person unsuitable for any reason named in § 731.202, OPM, in its discretion, may deny that person examination for and appointment to a competitive position for a period of not more than 3 years from the date of determination of unsuitability.

(b) On expiration of a period of debarment, a person who has been debarred may not be appointed to any position in the competitive service until OPM has redetermined that person's suitability for appointment.

Subpart D—Suitability Actions

§ 731.401 Scope.

(a) Coverage. This subpart sets forth the procedures to be followed when OPM, acting under authority of this part, proposes to take or to instruct an agency to take, a final suitability ineligibility action, including removal, against an applicant or eligible for appointment in, or an appointee or employee in, the competitive service. This subpart does not apply to an action taken by an agency to which OPM has delegated authority under § 731.103.

(b) Definition. In this subpart, days means calendar days.

§ 731.402 Notice of proposed action.

(a) OPM shall notify the applicant, eligible, appointee, or employee (hereinafter, the "respondent") in writing of the proposed action and of the charges against the respondent. The notice shall state the reasons, specifically and in detail, for the proposed action. The notice shall also state that the respondent has the right to answer this notice in writing. If the respondent is an employee the notice shall further state that the employee may also make an oral answer, as specified in § 731.403(a). The notice shall further inform the respondent of the time limits
