

From: William B. Thompson, MD
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

I am writing to comment on the above proposed rule- I firmly believe that institutions should be required to get a customer's permission upfront in order to provide overdraft protection. The customer should have to opt in before any fees can be assessed for overdraft protection for ATM withdrawals and debit card purchases.

William B. Thompson
MD