

From: Matthew Deutsch
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

I think banks should be required to have customers enroll in overdraft protection. I don't want my account to have it, but I haven't been given a choice.

In addition, I feel that the order my transactions post against my account is the order they were created. This manipulation to process the larger of the transactions is foolish nonsense.