

From: Ryan Goeden
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

I am opposed to the "opt-out" rule for the overdraft protection services with depositor banks. Presenting a clear choice in which a bank's potential customer must state that they want a service increases fairness, improves understanding and knowledge, and ultimately contributes to a basic tenant of American free enterprise: the open and free flow of information.

Thank you.

Ryan