

From: Mara Alexander
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

I would very much like to see Option 2 adopted, in which institutions need to get a customer's permission to provide overdraft protection. With the availability of electronic communications such as email these days, there is no reason that an email could not be automatically sent to notify a customer of insufficient funds. Some institutions already offer this service voluntarily.

Mara Alexander