Dear Email comments,

Allowing banks (which, by the way are getting enormous amounts of taxpayer dollars to "get well") to charge unreasonable amounts of money in overdraft fees is a slap in the taxpayers face. It is unreasonable to nickel and dime taxpayers to death when we are all paying to help get the banks out from under their self made problems. While you're looking at ways to make our money last longer, please permanently delay Universal Health Care. At a time when so much money is being wasted bailing out banks and auto makers, we taxpayers need a break. The more money Congress spends on reform packages, the less money Americans will have to pay our medical bills let alone pay someone else's. The huge loss of income increased taxes will have on the middle class will ensure its demise. Middle Class Americans have been bearing the tax burden for decades, but all of this new spending is going to be "the straw that breaks the Camel"s back."

Please allow me the chance to opt-in to overdraft services. This is the only way that I will truly feel protected.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Angela Walk
