LS,

Please do away with these money grabbing (stealing) bank methods, if there is no money left in the account the card should NOT work. This is nothing more than another predatory maneuver to make more money from a venerable part of the public.

The option for the banks to do this as they please, without even informing their clients, should not exist.

I have the same thoughts about the interest rates you are allowing these people to charge on the CC.

Sincerely,
