

From: George Ward
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

The banks have been behaving like Mafia loan sharks far too long. Any changes in regs will help , if people are more informed.

The principal reason for fine print seems to be to bamboozle the customer. We need to know our specific rights and have the option to decline products that will fine us for human mistakes.

George Ward