Your Guide to Metro Choices

Your Guide to Metro Choices

Metro Transit offers you many transportation choices to Get You There.

Buses

transit.metrokc.gov

Get There on one of Metro's 1,300 buses serving over 9,000 bus stops in King County. Bus routes, schedules, maps and an incredibly easy Trip Planner program are just a click away on Metro's Website.

Park-and-Ride

transit.metrokc.gov

Choose from the many well lit, convenient park-and-ride lots. Park your car and let Metro Get You There. Follow the links on Metro's Website for a complete list of lots and bus routes that serve them.

Bikes

Metro buses are equipped with racks to carry bicycles. You may load or off-load your bike at any stop except within the downtown Seattle Ride Free Zone. Many park-and-ride lots also have bike lockers.

VanPool

RideshareOnline.com

Save gas, parking fees, and the wear and tear on your car. Share a ride to work with 4 to 14 other commuters in a comfortable van that is owned, insured and serviced by Metro.

Carpool

RideshareOnline.com

Carpooling is a great choice for pooling your resources. Save gas, meet new people and relax. Choose carpool and move to the carpool, diamond lane.

VanShare

RideshareOnline.com

Choose VanShare to bridge the gap between you and transit, ferry and Sounder train service. Metro provides the vans and you make your connection.

Ridematch

RideshareOnline.com

Metro offers free self-serve ridematching services to connect you with others who want to share a ride in a carpool or vanpool.

Access

transit.metrokc.gov

Metro offers Access service to qualified individuals with special needs due to age or disabilities.

Accessible

transit.metrokc.gov

All Metro buses are equipped with lifts or ramps for wheelchairs, scooters or persons who have trouble climbing steps. Most Metro bus stops are accessible. The international access symbol is displayed at bus stops where lifts and ramps can be used.
