

Egypt's Pyramids: What Lies Inside?

Student Name _____ Class _____

You are an archaeologist who has been sent to dig up objects in order to find out what they tell us about life (and death) in a certain place and time by where they were found. Use the clues below to find out as much as you can.

University of Memphis Museum: <http://www.memphis.edu/egypt/artifact.html>
<http://www.memphis.edu/egypt/9.htm>
<http://www.memphis.edu/egypt/11.htm>
<http://www.memphis.edu/egypt/12.htm>

Metropolitan Museum's Art of Ancient Egypt, a Web Resource,
http://metmuseum.org/explore/newegypt/htm/wk_frame.htm:
click on page 1, Section from a Book of the Dead and
page 2, Menna and His Family Fishing and Fowling, Statue of an Offering Bearer,
River boat

Detroit Institute of Arts
<http://www.dia.org/collections/ancient/egypt/70.619-.622.html>

| Artifact | Date | Materials & description | Place found and use |
|----------|------|-------------------------|---------------------|
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |

1. Where did you find most of your artifacts?

2. What kinds of objects did you find?

3. What do the objects you discovered tell us about life and death in ancient Egypt?
