Docket No. 9302

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO MOVE TO QUASH SUBPOENA

Samsung Semiconductor Inc. ("Samsung"), a non-party to the above-captioned case, through undersigned counsel, files this motion for a brief extension of time for Samsung to file a motion to quash Rambus Incorporated's Subpoena Duces Tecum, dated August 20, 2002 (the "Subpoena").

Rambus Incorporated ("Rambus") served Samsung with the Subpoena on October 1, 2002. Under the applicable procedures, the time to file a motion to quash the Subpoena would be October 11, 2002.

Counsel are negotiating an agreement to resolve Samsung's complaints about the scope and burden of the Subpoena and other issues regarding the Subpoena. However, due to the complexity of the issues and the scope of the Subpoena, as well as the need to communicate across time zones with as much as fourteen-hour differences, this negotiation is not complete.

Samsung and Rambus have agreed to an extension of time to file a motion to quash the Subpoena to at least October 14, 2002. These parties expect to make further agreements to extend this date and to resolve other issues regarding the Subpoena in the next few days. The extension is not sought for delay, but only to allow for the resolution of this discovery dispute without litigation (if possible).

Counsel for Rambus and the Federal Trade Commission do not oppose this extension.

Accordingly, Samsung requests that this motion be granted and that it be given until October 14, 2002 to file a motion to quash the Subpoena, without prejudice to seek a further extension of this deadline.

Dated: October 11, 2001
