MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Non-party Micron Technology, Inc. (“Micron”) hereby moves pursuant to § 3.31(d) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice for a protective order granting confidential treatment and the same protections afforded Restricted Confidential Discovery Material under the Protective Order Governing Discovery Material entered August 5, 2002 to portions of its Motion for Leave to File a Reply In Support of Motion to Limit or Quash and its proposed Reply in Support of Motion to Limit or Quash, and the entire Declaration of Robert Donnelly submitted in support thereof. The redacted portions of the Motion for Leave and the Reply, and the Declaration, contain information of a highly personal and private nature the disclosure of which could cause annoyance, embarrassment or oppression to a witness.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard L. Rosen, Esquire
