FOURTH JOINT STATUS REPORT

The parties hereby file their fourth joint status report relating to the status of settlement negotiations in this case, and Mr. Chhabra's sentencing date in his criminal matter.

Complaint Counsel's Statement

Mr. Chhabra's criminal proceeding in Virginia continues without establishment of a new sentencing date. On April 27, 2005, the parties in the instant case held face-to-face settlement discussions. The discussions lasted approximately five hours, during which, both sides worked diligently towards a resolution of this matter. At the end of the meeting, the parties agreed to exchange materials that were deemed necessary to advance the progress of the settlement discussions. Complaint counsel expects the promised exchanges will take place promptly and that frank and diligent settlement discussions will continue. We hope to have a better idea if these settlement negotiations will come to fruition by May 20, 2005, when the next joint status report is due.

Statement of Counsel for Respondents

Respondents incorporate by reference Respondents' assertions in the prior status reports. Respondents met with attorneys from the FTC on April 27, 2005 in Florida. The meeting was informative and productive. The parties agreed to continue to discuss various ways to resolve the case.

Conclusion

The next status report in this matter is due on or before May, 20, 2005.

Respectfully submitted,

Janet M. Evans (202) 326-2125
