

USDOL Discretionary Roundtable

May 30- June 1,2007

“ Building Partnerships through Effective Collaboration”

Presenters

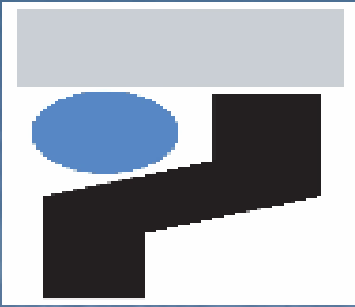

State Director : Sherrie Moody

Regional Mangers:

Elsie Blanton

Carmen Wilkinson

Myrtice Moore

TELAMON CORPORATION

Transition resources corporation
www.telamon.org

We are committed advocates for people in need.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to promote the development of human potential by providing resources and creating opportunities in the communities we serve.

Equal Opportunity Employer

About Telamon

The organization

Telamon is a private, nonprofit organization whose purpose and goal is improving the lives of people in need, especially migrant and seasonal farm workers.

About Telamon cont.

In 1978 we began our efforts in Georgia to assure that our mission is fulfilled through three primary programs; they are: Employment and Training, Housing, and Head Start.

Three Elements to Building Effective Partnerships

- Increase Awareness of Services/Staff Development
- Sharing Resources
- Openly Sharing Information

Awareness Collaborating and Building Partnerships

- Attending monthly WIA and Collaborative Meetings
- Follow-up with referrals
- Interviewing and Networking
- Memorandum of Understanding
- Letters of Support and Coordination
- Understanding Effective Partnerships
- Using the Web for Communication
- Continue Establishing Relationships with Secondary Education Entities

Sharing Information

- Identify Barriers
- Referrals
- Contacts/ Follow-Up
- Labor Market Information
- Peer Exchange

Sharing of Resources

- Location
- Co- Enrollments
- Referrals
- Resource Sharing Agreements

