

DEDICATION

Sen. Mary Landriou, D-La., center, laughs as Council Member Marion Berry holds up a ceremonial bow after the ribbon-cutting as officials celebrate the opening of The Balanced and Restorative Justice Drop-in Center for Juveniles in Southeast Washington. The center will offer youth who are pretrial or are facing probation revocation activities such as tutoring, mentoring, education and prevention groups, peer mediation, recreation and field trips. - Andrew Harnik/Examiner