

HUMAN & ENVIRONMENTAL EXPOSURE ASSESSMENT OF NANOMATERIALS

National Nanotechnology
Initiative

Workshop goal: To provide an open forum to facilitate effective communication among stakeholders about progress achieved in the Human and Environmental Exposure Assessment research category of the Strategy for Nanotechnology-Related Environmental, Health, and Safety (EHS) Research and about the path forward for addressing research needs in this category by:

- * Bringing stakeholders together to build dialogue and to facilitate collaborations;
- * Discussing the state of the science to compare the progress of ongoing research to research needs and to identify gaps and emerging trends;
- * Relating progress and next steps to adaptive management of the EHS research needs strategy.

Workshop Site: CPSC Conference Facility, 4330 East West Highway, Bethesda, Maryland
Date: February 24-25, 2009
Contact: (703) 292-8626 / Email: exposure@nnco.nano.gov
Website: www.nano.gov/html/meetings/exposure

Sponsored by the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health & the Nanoscale Science, Engineering, and Technology Subcommittee, Committee on Technology, National Science and Technology Council.

Hosted by the Consumer Product Safety Commission