ORDER TO MAINTAIN ASSETS

The Federal Trade Commission (“Commission”) having initiated an investigation of the proposed acquisition by Respondent Occidental Petroleum Corporation, hereinafter referred to as “Respondent Oxy,” of three chemical plants and related assets from Vulcan Chloralkali, LLC and Vulcan Materials Company, hereinafter collectively referred to as “Respondent Vulcan,” and Respondent Oxy and Respondent Vulcan (“Respondents”) having been furnished thereafter with a draft of Complaint that the Bureau of Competition proposed to present to the Commission for its consideration and that, if issued by the Commission, would charge Respondents with violations of Section 7 of the Clayton Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. § 18, and Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. § 45; and

Respondents, their attorneys, and counsel for the Commission having thereafter executed an Agreement Containing Consent Orders (“Consent Agreement”), containing an admission by Respondents of all the jurisdictional facts set forth in the aforesaid draft of Complaint, a statement that the signing of said Consent Agreement is for settlement purposes only and does not constitute an admission by Respondents that the law has been violated as alleged in such Complaint, or that the facts as alleged in such Complaint, other than jurisdictional facts, are true, and waivers and other provisions as required by the Commission’s Rules; and

The Commission having thereafter considered the matter and having determined that it had reason to believe that Respondents have violated the said Acts, and that a Complaint should issue stating its charges in that respect, and having determined to accept the executed Consent Agreement and to place such Consent Agreement on the public record for a period of thirty (30) days for the receipt and consideration of public comments, the Commission hereby issues its Complaint, makes the following jurisdictional findings, and issues the following Order to Maintain Assets:

1. Respondent Occidental Petroleum Corporation is a publicly traded company, organized, existing and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Delaware, with its office and principal place of business located at 10889 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California 90024-4201.

2. Respondent Vulcan Materials Company is a publicly traded company, organized, existing and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New Jersey with its office and principal place of business located at 1200 Urban Center Dr., Birmingham AL 35242.

3. The Federal Trade Commission has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this proceeding and of Respondents, and the proceeding is in the public interest.

4. ERCO Worldwide (USA) Inc. is a company organized, existing, and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of Delaware, with its office and principal place of business located at 302 The East Mall, Suite 200, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M9B 6C7, and is a subsidiary of Superior Holdings (USA) Inc., which is a subsidiary of Superior Plus, Inc. (a Canadian company).

ORDER

I.

IT IS ORDERED that, as used in this Order, the following definitions shall apply:

- A. “Respondent Oxy” or “Oxy” means Occidental Petroleum Corporation, a corporation, its directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, representatives, predecessors, successors, and assigns; its joint ventures, including Armand Products Company, subsidiaries, including Occidental Chemical Corporation (“OxyChem”) and Basic Chemicals Company, LLC, divisions, groups and affiliates controlled by Occidental Petroleum Corporation, and the respective directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, representatives, predecessors, successors, and assigns of each.

- B. “Respondent Vulcan” or “Vulcan” means Vulcan Materials Company, a corporation, its directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, representatives, predecessors, successors, and assigns; its joint ventures, including Vulcan Chloralkali LLC, subsidiaries, divisions, groups and affiliates controlled by Vulcan Materials Company, and the respective directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, representatives, predecessors, successors, and assigns of each.

- V. “Terminaling Agreement” means an agreement between the Acquirer and Respondent Oxy in which the Acquirer will use a terminal or facility owned by Respondent Oxy to store or transfer products produced by the Acquirer at the Port Edwards facility.

II.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

- A. Respondents shall:
1. take such actions as are necessary to maintain the viability and marketability of the Port Edwards Assets and to prevent the destruction, removal, wasting, deterioration, or impairment of the Port Edwards Assets, except for ordinary wear and tear; and
  2. not sell, transfer, encumber or otherwise impair the full economic viability, marketability, or competitiveness of the Port Edwards Assets.
- B. No later than the Effective Date of Divestiture, Respondents shall secure all assignments, consents, and waivers, including rights of approval and rights of first refusal, from all private and Governmental Entities that are necessary for the divestiture of the Port Edwards Assets to the Acquirer.
- C. Respondent Oxy shall, no later than the Effective Date of Divestiture and as part of the Divestiture Agreement, assign the Potash Contract to the Acquirer.

- D. Respondents shall, at the option of the Acquirer, and as part of the Divestiture Agreement, enter into one or more transition agreements for the short-term provision of services provided by Respondents to the Acquirer.
- E. Respondents and Respondents's employees shall not receive, or have access to, or use or continue to use any Confidential Business Information about the Port Edwards Assets or about the production, transportation, delivery, storage, distribution, marketing, and sale of products of the Acquirer from the Port Edwards facility except:
1. As otherwise allowed in this Order to Maintain Assets or the Decision and Order in this matter;
  2. As provided for in a transition services agreement;
  3. As consented to by the Acquirer for provision to Respondent Vulcan;
  4. As required by law;
  5. To the extent that necessary information is exchanged in the course of consummating the Acquisition;
  6. In negotiating agreements to divest assets pursuant to the Decision and Order in this matter and engaging in related due diligence;
  7. In complying with this Order to Maintain Assets or the Decision and Order in this matter;
  8. To the extent necessary to allow Respondents to comply with the requirements and obligations of the laws of the United States and other countries;
  9. In defending legal claims, investigations or enforcement actions threatened or brought against or related to the Port Edwards Assets;
  10. In obtaining legal advice.

Respondents shall require any Persons with access to Confidential Business Information to immediately enter into agreements with the Respondents and Acquirer not to disclose any Confidential Business Information to the Respondents or to any third party except for the purposes set forth this paragraph.

- F. For Shared Customer Contracts, Respondents shall, no later than the Effective Date of Divestiture of the Port Edwards Assets and as part of the Divestiture Agreement, assign Shared Customer Contracts in whole or in part, or contribute to the Acquirer additional customer contracts held by them, or modify the Shared Customer Contracts or other customer contracts held by them, to insure that, as a result of the divestiture and as part of the Divestiture Agreement, the Acquirer receives:

1. customers of comparable financial strength as measured by credit rating or some other similar widely accepted measure;
  2. customers requiring delivery to locations at distances similar to or shorter than the delivery distances for products from the Port Edwards facility prior to the divestiture and consistent with the historical delivery distances for products delivered by the Port Edwards facility;
  3. customers requiring quantities similar to or exceeding the quantities of product delivered by the Port Edwards facility prior to the divestiture and consistent with historical amounts of product delivered by the Port Edwards facility; and
  4. customer contracts of similar or longer lengths of time for the products delivered by the Port Edwards facility prior to the divestiture.
- G. Respondents shall, no later than the Effective Date of Divestiture of the Port Edwards Assets, at the option of the Acquirer, and as part of the Divestiture Agreement, assign Shared Terminal Contracts in whole or in part, modify current Shared Terminal Contracts or enter into new terminal contracts to insure that, as a result of the divestiture, the Acquirer receives:
1. the same terminals as, or terminals of a quality similar to, those retained by Respondent Oxy;
  2. terminal space equal to or exceeding the capacity of terminal space used for products delivered by the Port Edwards facility prior to the divestiture and consistent with historical amounts of products delivered by the Port Edwards facility;
  3. terminal contracts of similar or longer lengths of time that existed for the products delivered by the Port Edwards facility prior to the divestiture; and
  4. terminal capacity in locations similar to the locations used for products delivered by the Port Edwards facility prior to the divestiture.
- H. Respondents shall:
1. not receive Confidential Business Information about the transportation, delivery, storage, distribution, marketing, and sale of product by the Acquirer at a terminal owned by Respondents and used by the Acquirer, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, individual employees of the Respondents may receive and use Confidential Business Information only to the extent required for the operation of a Terminaling Agreement or to the extent necessary to allow Respondents to comply with the requirements and obligations of the laws of the United States and other countries, and to prepare consolidated financial reports, tax returns, reports required by securities laws, and personnel reports. Respondents shall require any Persons with access to Confidential Business Information to immediately enter into agreements with the Respondents and Acquirer not to disclose any Confidential Business Information to the Respondents or to any third party except for the purposes set forth this paragraph.

2. include in any Terminating Agreement:
  - a. a provision prohibiting Respondents or any employee of Respondents from receiving Confidential Business Information about the transportation, delivery, storage, distribution, marketing, and sale of product by the Acquirer at a terminal owned by Respondents and used by the Acquirer, except at otherwise provided in this Paragraph II.H.; and
  - b. a provision consistent with the proviso in Paragraph II.H.1., above, regarding non-disclosure of Confidential Business Information.
- I. The purposes of this Order to Maintain Assets are: (1) to ensure the continuation of the Port Edwards Assets as a going concern in the same manner in which it conducted business as of the date the Consent Agreement is signed; (2) assure that no Confidential Business Information relating to the Port Edwards Assets is exchanged between Respondents and between Respondents and the Acquirer, except in accordance with the provisions of this Order to Maintain Assets and the Decision and Order in this matter; (3) prevent interim harm to competition pending divestiture and other relief; and (4) to help remedy the lessening of competition resulting from the Acquisition as alleged in the Commission's Complaint.

III.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

- A. Richard M. Klein of Cherry Hill, NJ, shall serve as the Monitor ("Monitor"), pursuant to the agreement executed by the Monitor and Respondents and attached as Confidential Appendix B ("Monitor Agreement").
  1. The Monitor Agreement shall require that, no later than one (1) day after this Order to Maintain Assets is made final, Respondents shall transfer to the Monitor all the rights, powers, and authorities necessary to permit the Monitor to perform his duties and responsibilities, pursuant to this Order to Monitor Assets and consistent with the purposes of the Decision and Order in this matter.
  2. No later than one (1) day after this Order to Maintain Assets is made final, Respondents shall transfer to the Monitor all the rights, powers, and authorities necessary to permit the Monitor to perform his duties and responsibilities, pursuant to this Order to Monitor Assets and consistent with the purposes of the Decision and Order in this matter.
  3. The Monitor shall have the power and authority to monitor the Respondents's compliance with the terms of the Order, and shall exercise such power and authority and carry out the duties and responsibilities of the Monitor in a manner consistent with the purposes of the Order and in consultation with the Commission, including, but not limited to:

- a. Assuring that Respondents expeditiously comply with all of their obligations and performs all of their responsibilities as required by this Order to Maintain Assets and the Decision and Order in this matter;
  - b. Monitoring Terminating Agreements;
  - c. Monitoring any transition services agreements;
  - d. Assuring that Confidential Business Information is not received or used by Respondents or Acquirer, except as allowed in this Order to Maintain Assets and the Decision and Order in this matter;
4. The Monitor shall act in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of the Commission.
  5. The Monitor shall serve until December 31, 2006.
  6. Subject to any demonstrated legally recognized privilege, the Monitor shall have full and complete access to Respondents's personnel, books, documents, records kept in the normal course of business, facilities and technical information, and such other relevant information as the Monitor may reasonably request, related to Respondents's compliance with their obligations under the Order to Maintain Assets and the Decision and Order in this matter. Respondents shall cooperate with any reasonable request of the Monitor and shall take no action to interfere with or impede the Monitor's ability to monitor Respondents's compliance with the Order.
  7. The Monitor shall serve, without bond or other security, at the expense of Respondents on such reasonable and customary terms and conditions as the Commission may set. The Monitor shall have authority to employ, at the expense of the Respondents, such consultants, accountants, attorneys and other representatives and assistants as are reasonably necessary to carry out the Monitor's duties and responsibilities. The Monitor shall account for all expenses incurred, including fees for services rendered, subject to the approval of the Commission.
  8. Respondents shall indemnify the Monitor and hold the Monitor harmless against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses arising out of, or in connection with, the performance of the Monitor's duties, including all reasonable fees of counsel and other reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the preparations for, or defense of, any claim, whether or not resulting in any liability, except to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses result from misfeasance, gross negligence, willful or wanton acts, or bad faith by the Monitor.

9. The Monitor Agreement shall state that within one (1) month from the date the Monitor is appointed pursuant to this paragraph, and every sixty (60) days thereafter, the Monitor shall report in writing to the Commission concerning performance by Respondents of their obligations under the Order.
  10. Respondents may require the Monitor and each of the Monitor's consultants, accountants, attorneys, and other representatives and assistants to sign a customary confidentiality agreement; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, such agreement shall not restrict the Monitor from providing any information to the Commission.
  11. The Commission may, among other things, require the Monitor and each of the Monitor's consultants, accountants, attorneys, and other representatives and assistants to sign an appropriate confidentiality agreement relating to Commission materials and information received in connection with the performance of the Monitor's duties.
  12. If the Commission determines that the Monitor has ceased to act or failed to act diligently, the Commission may appoint a substitute Monitor in the manner provided in Paragraph IV.D of the Decision and Order in this matter.
  13. The Commission may on its own initiative, or at the request of the Monitor, issue such additional orders or directions as may be necessary or appropriate to assure compliance with the requirements of this Order to Maintain Assets or the Decision and Order in this matter.
  14. A Monitor appointed pursuant to this Order to Maintain Assets may be the same person appointed as the Divestiture Trustee pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Decision and Order in this matter.
- B. The purpose of the appointment of the Monitor is to: (1) assure that Respondents expeditiously comply with all of their obligations and performs all of their responsibilities as required by this Order to Maintain Assets and the Decision and Order in this matter; (2) assure that no Confidential Business Information relating to the Port Edwards Assets is exchanged between Respondents and between Respondents and the Acquirer, except in accordance with the provisions of this Order to Maintain Assets and the Decision and Order in this matter; (3) help prevent interim harm to competition pending divestiture and other relief; and (4) to help remedy the lessening of competition resulting from the Acquisition as alleged in the Commission's Complaint.

IV.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that until December 31, 2006, Respondent Oxy, including, but not limited to, its agents and Armand Products Company, shall not solicit any Assigned Contract Customer in an attempt to sell, currently or in the future, such customer KOH (if the contract assigned to the Assigned Contract Customer was for KOH) or potassium carbonate (if the contract assigned to the Assigned Contract Customer was for potassium carbonate) including, but not limited to, making offers pursuant to a “meet or release” or “competitive price” or similar clause in customer contracts. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, Respondent Oxy may discuss the terms of Respondent Oxy’s contract or supply with a Dual Contract Customer, but shall not otherwise solicit an Assigned Contract Customer as prohibited by this Paragraph VI. PROVIDED, FURTHER, HOWEVER, if an Assigned Contract Customer is no longer under contract with the Acquirer, this Paragraph VI no longer applies to Respondent Oxy in relation to that Assigned Contract Customer.

V.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondents shall facilitate the hiring of any Designated Vulcan Staff by the Acquirer prior to the Effective Date of Divestiture by:

- A. Allowing the Acquirer an opportunity to interview each person identified as Designated Vulcan Staff before they are hired pursuant to this Paragraph V;
- B. Allowing the Acquirer to inspect the personnel files and other documentation relating to the Designated Vulcan Staff, to the extent permissible under applicable laws, before they are hired pursuant to this Paragraph V;
- C. Not offering any incentive to the Designated Vulcan Staff to decline employment with the Acquirer;
- D. Not interfering with any negotiations by the Acquirer to employ any Designated Vulcan Staff;
- E. Removing any contractual impediments with the Respondents that may deter any Designated Vulcan Staff from accepting employment with the Acquirer and assigning any confidentiality agreements or restrictions, except as to information related solely to products or businesses not transferred to the Acquirer and any non-compete agreements; and
- F. Vesting all pension rights, current and accrued, of any Designated Vulcan Staff as of the date of transition to employment with the Acquirer.

VI.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent Oxy shall notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any proposed (1) dissolution of Respondent Oxy, (2) acquisition, merger or consolidation of Respondent Oxy, or (3) any other change in Respondent Oxy that may affect compliance obligations arising out of the order, including but not limited to assignment and the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries.

VII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, for the purpose of determining or securing compliance with this Order to Maintain Assets, and subject to any legally recognized privilege, and upon written request with reasonable notice, Respondents shall permit any duly authorized representative of the Commission:

- A. access, during office hours of Respondents and in the presence of counsel, to all facilities and access to inspect and copy all books, ledgers, accounts, correspondence, memoranda and all other records and documents in the possession or under the control of Respondents related to compliance with this Order to Maintain Assets; and
- B. upon five (5) days' notice to Respondents and without restraint or interference from Respondents, to interview officers, directors, or employees of Respondents, who may have counsel present, regarding such matters.

VIII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order to Maintain Assets shall terminate on December 31, 2007.

By the Commission.
