payable to petitioner and Mr. Ronald C. Homer, in the amount of $93,401.99, and one check made payable to petitioner in the amount of $120.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.<sup>2</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.
