

District of Columbia Court of Appeals

NOTICE

(NOVEMBER 19, 2007)

In the event of a weather or other emergency that affects court operations, an announcement will be made thru the media as to what court operations will occur and at what time. People can also call 879-1010 to get information on court operations.

The Court of Appeals operates slightly differently than the rest of the Court System. In the event of inclement weather, the Court System will announce one of four levels of operations.

(1) Open ... the Court of Appeals is open its normal hours;

(2) Open at 10:00 A.M. ... the Court of Appeals follows that, UNLESS there is a regular calendar scheduled for that day. If there is a regular calendar, scheduled to commence at 9:30 A.M. on a day when the Court System announces "Open at 10:00 A.M.", the Court of Appeals will commence operations in time to hold the arguments at 9:30 A.M.

(3) Open on Emergency Schedule ... the Court of Appeals is closed.

(4) Closed ... the Court of Appeals is closed.
