Subject: Public Comment -- Life is good

Greetings,

I am concerned with the sunset provision contained in Part VIII, in which the FTC's proposed order expires "after twenty years, with certain exceptions." What are those exceptions? In the future, once it has satisfied the FTC's proposed order, Life may be tempted to scale back on increased security measures in order to cut costs; as such, I think it is important that the FTC continue to monitor Life.

Thank you for your consideration, Kate Langmore
