Local Civil Rule 1.3. Admission to the Bar

(a) A member in good standing of the bar of the state of New York, or a member in good standing of the bar of the United States District Court in Connecticut or Vermont and of the bar of the State in which such district court is located, provided such district court by its rule extends a corresponding privilege to members of the bar of this court, may be admitted to practice in this court on compliance with the following provisions:

In the first instance, each applicant for admission is required to file an application for admission in electronic form on the Court's Web site (www.nysd.uscourts.gov). This one application will be utilized both to admit and then to provide the applicant to the bar of this Court with a password and login for use on the court's Electronic Case Filing (ECF) system. The applicant shall adhere to all applicable rules of admission.

The applicant shall (a) complete the application on-line, (b) submit the application electronically, (c) print and sign a copy of the application, and (d) file the printed application and fee with the clerk, together with a certificate(s) of good standing and a supporting affidavit(s).

After submitting the application in electronic form, each applicant for admission shall file with the clerk, at least ten (10) days prior to hearing (unless, for good cause shown, the judge shall shorten the time), the signed paper copy of the verified written petition for admission stating: (1) applicant's residence and office address; (2) the time when, and courts where, admitted; (3) applicant's legal training and experience; (4) whether applicant has ever been held in contempt of court, and, if so, the nature of the contempt and the final disposition thereof; (5) whether applicant has ever been censured, suspended, disbarred or denied admission or readmission by any court, and, if so, the facts and circumstances connected therewith; (6) that applicant has read and is familiar with (a) the provisions of the Judicial Code (Title 28, U.S.C.) which pertain to the jurisdiction of, and practice in, the United States District Courts; (b) the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; (c) the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure; (d) the Federal Rules of Evidence; (e) the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York; and (f) the New York State Rules of Professional Conduct as adopted from time to time by the Appellate Divisions of the State of New York; and (7) that applicant will faithfully adhere to all rules applicable to applicant's conduct in connection with any activities in this court...

The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of the clerk of the court for each of the states in which the applicant is a member of the bar, which has been issued within thirty (30) days and states that the applicant is a member in good standing of the bar of that state court. The petition shall also be accompanied by an affidavit of an attorney of this court who has known the applicant for at least one year, stating when the affiant was admitted to practice in this court, how long and under what circumstances the attorney has known the applicant, and what the attorney knows of the applicant's character and experience at the bar. Such petition shall be placed at the head of the calendar and, on the call thereof, the attorney whose affidavit accompanied the petition shall personally move the admission of the applicant. If the petition is granted, the applicant shall take the oath of office and sign the roll of attorneys.

A member of the bar of the state of New York, Connecticut, or Vermont who has been admitted to the bar of this court pursuant to this subsection and who thereafter voluntarily resigns from membership in the bar of the state pursuant to which he was admitted to the bar of this court, and who does not within 30 days of that voluntary resignation file an affidavit with the clerk of this court indicating that such person remains eligible to be admitted to the bar of this court pursuant to other provisions of this subsection (as because he is still a member of the bar of another eligible state and, where applicable, a corresponding district court), shall be deemed to have voluntarily resigned from the bar of this court as of the same date the member resigned from the bar of the underlying state, provided that such resignation shall not be deemed to deprive this court of jurisdiction to impose discipline on this person, pursuant to Rule 1.5 infra, for conduct preceding the date of such resignation.

(b) A member in good standing of the bar of either the Southern or Eastern District of New York may be admitted to the bar of the other district without formal application (1) upon filing in that district a certificate of the Clerk of the United States District Court for the district in which the applicant is a member of the bar, which has been issued within thirty (30) days and states that the applicant is a member in good standing of the bar of that court and (2) upon taking the oath of office, signing the roll of attorneys of that district, and paying the fee required in that district.

(c) A member in good standing of the bar of any state or of any United States District Court may be permitted to argue or try a particular case in whole or in part as counsel or advocate, upon motion and upon filing with the Clerk of the District Court a certificate of the court for each of the states in which the applicant is a member of the bar, which has been issued within thirty (30) days and states that the applicant is a member in good standing of the bar of that state court. Only an attorney who has been so admitted or who is a member of the bar of this court may enter appearances for parties, sign stipulations or receive payments upon judgments, decrees or orders.

(d) If an attorney who is a member of the bar of this court, or who has been authorized to appear in a case in this court, changes his or her residence or office address, the attorney shall immediately notify the clerk of the court, in addition to serving and filing a notice of change of address in each pending case in which the attorney has appeared.

[Effective April 1, 2009]

Local Civil Rule 1.4. Withdrawal or Displacement of Attorney of Record

An attorney who has appeared as attorney of record for a party may be relieved or displaced only by order of the court and may not withdraw from a case without leave of the court granted by order. Such an order may be granted only upon a showing by affidavit or otherwise of satisfactory reasons for withdrawal or displacement and the posture of the case, including its position, if any, on the calendar.

Local Civil Rule 1.5. Discipline of Attorneys

(a) Committee on Grievances. The chief judge shall appoint a committee of the board of judges known as the Committee on Grievances, which under the direction of the chief judge shall have charge of all matters relating to the discipline of attorneys. The chief judge shall appoint a panel of attorneys who are members of the bar of this court to advise or assist the Committee on Grievances. At the direction of the Committee on Grievances or its chair, members of this panel of attorneys may investigate complaints, may prepare and support statements of charges, or may serve as members of hearing panels.

(b) Grounds for Discipline or Other Relief. Discipline or other relief, of the types set forth in paragraph (c) below, may be imposed, by the Committee on Grievances, after notice and opportunity to respond as set forth in paragraph (d) below, if any of the following grounds is found by clear and convincing evidence:

(1) Any member of the bar of this court has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor in any federal court, or in a court of any state or territory.

(2) Any member of the bar of this court has been disciplined by any federal court or by a court of any state or territory.

(3) Any member of the bar of this court has resigned from the bar of any federal court or of a court of any state or territory while an investigation into allegations of misconduct by the attorney was pending.

(4) Any member of the bar of this court has an infirmity which prevents the attorney from engaging in the practice of law.

(5) In connection with activities in this court, any attorney is found to have engaged in conduct violative of the New York State Rules of Professional Conduct as adopted from time to time by the Appellate Divisions of the State of New York, and as interpreted and applied by the United States Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and this court.

(6) Any attorney not a member of the bar of this court has appeared at the bar of this court without permission to do so.

(c) Types of Discipline or Other Relief.

(1) In the case of an attorney admitted to the bar of this court, discipline imposed pursuant to paragraph (b)(1), (b)(2), (b)(3), or (b)(5) above may consist of a letter of reprimand or admonition, censure, suspension, or an order striking the name of the attorney from the roll of attorneys admitted to the bar of this court.

(2) In the case of an attorney not admitted to the bar of this court, discipline imposed pursuant to paragraph (b)(5) or (b)(6) above may consist of a letter of reprimand or admonition, censure, or an order precluding the attorney from again appearing at the bar of this court.

(3) Relief required pursuant to paragraph (b)(4) above shall consist of suspending the attorney from practice before this court.

(d) Procedure.

(1) If it appears that there exists a ground for discipline set forth in paragraph (b)(1), (b)(2), or (b)(3), notice thereof shall be served by the Committee on Grievances upon the attorney concerned by first class mail, directed to the address of the attorney as shown on the rolls of this court and to the last known address of the attorney (if any) as shown in the complaint and any materials submitted therewith. Service shall be deemed complete upon mailing in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

In all cases in which any federal court or a court of any state or territory has entered an order disbarring or censuring an attorney or suspending the attorney from practice, whether or not on consent, the notice shall be served together with an order by the clerk of this court, to become effective twenty-four days after the date of service upon the attorney, disbarring or censuring the attorney or suspending the attorney from practice in this court upon terms and conditions comparable to those set forth by the other court of record. In all cases in which an attorney has resigned from the bar of any federal court or of a court of any state or territory while an investigation into allegations of misconduct by the attorney was pending, even if the attorney remains admitted to the bar of any other court, the notice shall be served together with an order entered by the clerk for this court, to become effective twenty-four days after the date of service upon the attorney, deeming the attorney to have resigned from the bar of this court. Within twenty days of the date of service of either order, the attorney may file a motion for modification or revocation of the order. Any such motion shall set forth with specificity the facts and principles relied upon by the attorney as showing cause why a different disposition should be ordered by this court. The timely filing of such a motion will stay the effectiveness of the order until further order by this court. If good cause is shown to hold an evidentiary hearing , the Committee on Grievances may proceed to impose discipline or to take such other action as justice and this rule may require.

In all other cases, the notice shall be served together with an order by the Committee on Grievances directing the attorney to show cause in writing why discipline should not be imposed. If the attorney fails to respond in writing to the order to show cause, or if the response fails to show good cause to hold an evidentiary hearing, the Committee on Grievances may proceed to impose discipline or to take such other action as justice and this rule may require. If good cause is shown to hold an evidentiary hearing, the Committee on Grievances may direct such a hearing pursuant to paragraph (d)(4) below.

(2) In the case of a ground for discipline set forth in paragraph (b)(2) or (b)(3) above, discipline may be imposed unless the attorney concerned establishes by clear and convincing evidence (i) that there was such an infirmity of proof of misconduct by the attorney as to give rise to the clear conviction that this court could not consistent with its duty accept as final the conclusion of the other court, or (ii) that the procedure resulting in the investigation or discipline of the attorney by the other court was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process, or (iii) that the imposition of discipline by this court would result in grave injustice.

(3) Complaints in writing alleging any ground for discipline or other relief set forth in paragraph (b) above shall be directed to the chief judge, who shall refer such complaints to the Committee on Grievances. The Committee on Grievances, by its chair, may designate an attorney, who may be selected from the panel of attorneys established pursuant to paragraph (a) above, to investigate the complaint, if it deems investigation necessary or warranted, and to prepare a statement of charges, if the Committee deems that necessary or warranted. Complaints, and any files based on them, shall be treated as confidential unless otherwise ordered by the chief judge for good cause shown.

(4) A statement of charges alleging a ground for discipline or other relief set forth in paragraph (b)(4), (b)(5), or (b)(6) shall be served upon the attorney concerned by certified mail, return receipt requested, directed to the address of the attorney as shown on the rolls of this court and to the last known address of the attorney (if any) as shown in the complaint and any materials submitted therewith, together with an order by the Committee on Grievances directing the attorney to show cause in writing why discipline or other relief should not be imposed. Upon the respondent attorney's answer to the charges the matter will be designated by the Committee on Grievances for a prompt evidentiary hearing before a magistrate judge of the court or before a panel of three attorneys, who may be selected from the panel of attorneys established pursuant to paragraph (a) above. The magistrate judge or panel of attorneys conducting the hearing may grant such pre-hearing discovery as they determine to be necessary, shall hear witnesses called by the attorney supporting the charges and by the respondent attorney, and may consider such other evidence included in the record of the hearing as they deem relevant and material. The magistrate judge or panel of attorneys conducting the hearing shall report their findings and recommendations in writing to the Committee on Grievances and shall serve them upon the respondent attorney and the attorney supporting the charges. After affording the respondent attorney and the attorney supporting the charges an opportunity to respond in writing to such report, or if no timely answer is made by the respondent attorney, or if the Committee on Grievances determines that the answer raises no issue requiring a hearing, the Committee on Grievances may proceed to impose discipline or to take such action as justice and this rule may require.

(e) Reinstatement. Any attorney who has been suspended or precluded from appearing in this court or whose name has been struck from the roll of the members of the bar of this court may apply in writing to the chief judge, for good cause shown, for the lifting of the suspension or preclusion or for reinstatement to the rolls. The chief judge shall refer such application to the Committee on Grievances. The Committee on Grievances may refer the application to a magistrate judge or hearing panel of attorneys (who may be the same magistrate judge or panel of attorneys who previously heard the matter) for findings and recommendations, or may act upon the application without making such a referral. Absent extraordinary circumstances, no such application will be granted unless the attorney seeking reinstatement meets the requirements for admission set forth in Local Civil Rule 1.3(a).

(f) Remedies for Misconduct. The remedies provided by this rule are in addition to the remedies available to individual judges and magistrate judges under applicable law with respect to lawyers appearing before them. Individual judges and magistrate judges may also refer any matter to the chief judge for referral to the Committee on Grievances to consider the imposition of discipline or other relief pursuant to this rule.

(g) Notice to Other Courts. When an attorney is known to be admitted to practice in the court of any state or territory, or in any other federal court, and has been convicted of any crime or disbarred, precluded from appearing, suspended or censured in this court, the clerk shall send to such other court or courts a certified copy of the judgment of conviction or order of disbarment, preclusion, suspension or censure, a certified copy of the court's opinion, if any, and a statement of the attorney's last known office and residence address.

[Effective April 1, 2009]

Local Civil Rule 1.6. Duty of Attorneys in Related Cases

(a) It shall be the continuing duty of each attorney appearing in any civil or criminal case to bring promptly to the attention of the clerk all facts which said attorney believes are relevant to a determination that said case and one or more pending civil or criminal cases should be heard by the same judge, in order to avoid unnecessary duplication of judicial effort. As soon as the attorney becomes aware of such relationship, said attorney shall notify the clerk in writing, who shall transmit that notification to the judges to whom the cases have been assigned.

(b) If counsel fails to comply with Local Civil Rule 1.6(a), the court may assess reasonable costs directly against counsel whose action has obstructed the effective administration of the court's business.

(b) Every attorney appearing in any proceeding who orders a transcript of any trial, hearing, or any other proceeding, is obligated to pay the cost thereof to the court reporters of the court upon rendition of the invoice unless at the time of such order, the attorney, in writing, advises the court reporter that only the client is obligated to pay.

Local Civil Rule 12.1 - Notice to Pro Se Litigant Who Opposes a Rule 12 Motion Supported by Maters Outside the Pleadings

A represented party moving to dismiss or for judgment on the pleadings against a party proceeding pro se, who refers in support of the motion to matters outside the pleadings as described in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b) or 12(c), shall serve and file the following notice at the time the motion is served. If the court rules that a motion to dismiss or for judgment on the pleadings will be treated as one for summary judgment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b) or 12(c), and the movant has not previously served and filed the notice required by this rule, the notice must be served and filed within ten days of the court's ruling.

Notice To Pro Se Litigant Who Opposes a Rule 12 Motion Supported by Matters Outside the Pleadings

The defendant in this case has moved to dismiss or for judgment on the pleadings pursuant to Rule 12(b) or 12(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and has submitted additional written materials. This means that the defendant has asked the court to decide this case without a trial, based on these written materials. You are warned that the Court may treat this motion as a motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. For this reason, THE CLAIMS YOU ASSERT IN YOUR COMPLAINT MAY BE DISMISSED WITHOUT A TRIAL IF YOU DO NOT RESPOND TO THIS MOTION by filing sworn affidavits or other papers as required by Rule 56(e). An affidavit is a sworn statement of fact based on personal knowledge that would be admissible in evidence at trial. The full text of Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is attached.

In short, Rule 56 provides that you may NOT oppose the defendant's motion simply by relying upon the allegations in your complaint. Rather, you must submit evidence, such as witness statements or documents, countering the facts asserted by the defendant and raising issues of fact for trial. Any witness statements must be in the form of affidavits. You may submit your own affidavit and/or the affidavits of others. You may submit affidavits that were prepared specifically in response to defendant's motion.

If you do not respond to the motion on time with affidavits or documentary evidence contradicting the facts asserted by the defendant, the court may accept defendant's factual assertions as true. Judgment may then be entered in defendant's favor without a trial.

If you have any questions, you may direct them to the Pro Se Office.

Local Civil Rule 16.1. Exemptions from Mandatory Scheduling Order

Matters involving habeas corpus petitions, social security disability cases, motions to vacate sentences, forfeitures, and reviews from administrative agencies are exempted from the mandatory scheduling order required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16(b).

[Source: Former Local Civil Rule 45 (Eastern District Only)]

Local Civil Rule 16.2. Entry and Modification of Mandatory Scheduling Orders by Magistrate Judges

In any case referred to a magistrate judge by a district judge, the magistrate judge may make scheduling orders pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16(b), and may modify for good cause shown scheduling orders previously entered.

(1) The attorney asserting the privilege shall identify the nature of the privilege (including work product) which is being claimed and, if the privilege is governed by state law, indicate the state's privilege rule being invoked; and

(2) The following information shall be provided in the objection, unless divulgence of such information would cause disclosure of the allegedly privileged information:

(A) For documents: (i) the type of document, e.g., letter or memorandum; (ii) the general subject matter of the document; (iii) the date of the document; and (iv) such other information as is sufficient to identify the document for a subpoena duces tecum, including, where appropriate, the author of the document, the addressees of the document, and any other recipients shown in the document, and, where not apparent, the relationship of the author, addressees, and recipients to each other;

Local Civil Rule 26.3. Uniform Definitions in Discovery Requests

(a) The full text of the definitions and rules of construction set forth in paragraphs (c) and (d) is deemed incorporated by reference into all discovery requests. No discovery request shall use broader definitions or rules of construction than those set forth in paragraphs (c) and (d). This rule shall not preclude (1) the definition of other terms specific to the particular litigation, (2) the use of abbreviations, or (3) a more narrow definition of a term defined in paragraph (c).

(b) This rule is not intended to broaden or narrow the scope of discovery permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) The following definitions apply to all discovery requests:

(1) Communication. The term "communication" means the transmittal of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries or otherwise).

(2) Document. The term "document" is defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of this term in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a), including, without limitation, electronic or computerized data compilations. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

(3) Identify (with respect to persons). When referring to a person, "to identify" means to give, to the extent known, the person's full name, present or last known address, and when referring to a natural person, additionally, the present or last known place of employment. Once a person has been identified in accordance with this subparagraph, only the name of that person need be listed in response to subsequent discovery requesting the identification of that person.

(4) Identify (with respect to documents). When referring to documents, "to identify" means to give, to the extent known, the (i) type of document; (ii) general subject matter; (iii) date of the document; and (iv) author(s), addressee(s) and recipient(s).

(5) Parties. The terms "plaintiff" and "defendant" as well as a party's full or abbreviated name or a pronoun referring to a party mean the party and, where applicable, its officers, directors, employees, partners, corporate parent, subsidiaries or affiliates. This definition is not intended to impose a discovery obligation on any person who is not a party to the litigation.

(6) Person. The term "person" is defined as any natural person or any business, legal or governmental entity or association.

(7) Concerning. The term "concerning" means relating to, referring to, describing, evidencing or constituting.

(d) The following rules of construction apply to all discovery requests:

(1) All/Each. The terms "all" and "each" shall be construed as all and each.

(2) And/Or. The connectives "and" and "or" shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope.

(3) Number. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.

Local Civil Rule 33.2. Standard Discovery in Prisoner Pro Se Actions

(a) This rule shall apply in any action commenced pro se in which the plaintiff's complaint includes any claim described in paragraph (b) of this rule and in which any named defendant, including one or more current or former employees of New York State or New York City, is represented by the Office of the Attorney General or the Office of the Corporation Counsel and is sued in matters arising out of events alleged to have occurred while the plaintiff was in the custody of either the Department of Corrections of the City of New York or the New York State Department of Correctional Services. In each such action in the Southern District of New York, such defendants shall, except as otherwise set forth herein, respond to the standing discovery requests adopted by the court, in accordance with the instructions and definitions set forth in the standing requests, unless otherwise ordered by the court. In each such action in the Eastern District of New York, such defendants shall respond to the standing discovery requests if so ordered by the court.

(b) The claims to which the standard discovery requests shall apply are Use of Force Cases, Inmate Against Inmate Assault Cases and Disciplinary Due Process Cases, as defined below, in which the events alleged in the complaint have occurred while the plaintiff was in the custody of either the Department of Corrections of the City of New York or the New York State Department of Correctional Services.

(1) "Use of Force Case" refers to an action in which the complaint alleges that any employee of the Department used physical force against the plaintiff in violation of the plaintiff's rights.

(2) "Inmate against Inmate Assault Case" refers to an action in which the complaint alleges that any defendant was responsible for the plaintiff's injury resulting from physical contact with another inmate.

(c) If a response to the requests is required to be made on behalf of an individual defendant, represented by the Office of the Corporation Counsel or the Office of the Attorney General, it shall be made on the basis of information and documents within the possession, custody or control of the

New York City Department of Corrections or New York State Department of Correctional Services in accordance with the instructions contained in the requests. If no defendant is represented by the Office of Corporation Counsel of the City of New York or the Office of the Attorney General, responses based upon such information need not be made pursuant to this local rule, without prejudice to such other discovery procedures as the plaintiff shall initiate.

(d) The requests, denominated Plaintiff's Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents, shall be answered within 120 days of service of the complaint on any named defendant except (i) as otherwise ordered by the court, for good cause shown, which shall be based upon the facts and procedural status of the particular case and not upon a generalized claim of burden, expense or relevance or (ii) as otherwise provided in the instructions to the requests. The responses to the requests shall be served upon the plaintiff and shall be filed with the Pro Se Office of the court. Copies of the requests are available through the Pro Se Office of the court.

(e) Except upon permission of the court, for good cause shown, the requests shall constitute the sole form of discovery available to plaintiff during the 120-day period as designated above.

(f) If the Pro Se Office determines that this rule applies, it shall provide copies of the standard requests to those pro se plaintiffs for service upon defendants together with the summons and complaint.

Local Civil Rule 33.3. Interrogatories (Southern District Only)

(a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, at the commencement of discovery, interrogatories will be restricted to those seeking names of witnesses with knowledge of information relevant to the subject matter of the action, the computation of each category of damage alleged, and the existence, custodian, location and general description of relevant documents, including pertinent insurance agreements, and other physical evidence, or information of a similar nature.

(b) During discovery, interrogatories other than those seeking information described in paragraph (a) above may only be served (1) if they are a more practical method of obtaining the information sought than a request for production or a deposition, or (2) if ordered by the court.

(c) At the conclusion of other discovery, and at least 30 days prior to the discovery cut-off date, interrogatories seeking the claims and contentions of the opposing party may be served unless the court has ordered otherwise.

(c) Other Discovery and Non-Dispositive Pretrial Disputes. Where the attorneys for the affected parties or non-party witness cannot agree on a resolution of any other discovery dispute or non-dispositive pretrial dispute, or if they are unable to obtain a telephonic ruling on a discovery dispute that arises during a deposition as provided in paragraph (b) above, they shall notify the court, at the option of the attorney for any affected party or non-party witness, either by telephone conference with all affected parties on the line or by letter not exceeding three pages in length outlining the nature of the dispute and attaching relevant materials. Local Civil Rule 56.2. Notice to Pro Se Litigant Who Opposes a Summary Judgment

Any represented party moving for summary judgment against a party proceeding pro se shall serve and file as a separate document, together with the papers in support of the motion, a "Notice To Pro Se Litigant Who Opposes a Motion For Summary Judgment" in the form indicated below. Where the pro se party is not the plaintiff, the movant shall amend the form notice as necessary to reflect that fact.

Notice To Pro Se Litigant Who Opposes a Motion For Summary Judgment

The defendant in this case has moved for summary judgment pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. This means that the defendant has asked the court to decide this case without a trial, based on written materials, including affidavits, submitted in support of the motion. THE CLAIMS YOU ASSERT IN YOUR COMPLAINT MAY BE DISMISSED WITHOUT A TRIAL IF YOU DO NOT RESPOND TO THIS MOTION by filing sworn affidavits and other papers as required by Rule 56(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and by Local Civil Rule 56.1. An affidavit is a sworn statement of fact based on personal knowledge that would be admissible in evidence at trial. The full text of Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Civil Rule 56.1 is attached.

In short, Rule 56 provides that you may NOT oppose summary judgment simply by relying upon the allegations in your complaint. Rather, you must submit evidence, such as witness statements or documents, countering the facts asserted by the defendant and raising material issues of fact for trial. Any witness statements must be in the form of affidavits. You may submit your own affidavit and/or the affidavits of others. You may submit affidavits that were prepared specifically in response to defendant's motion for summary judgment.

If you do not respond to the motion for summary judgment on time with affidavits or documentary evidence contradicting the material facts asserted by the defendant, the court may accept defendant's factual assertions as true. Judgment may then be entered in defendant's favor without a trial.

If you have any questions, you may direct them to the Pro Se Office.

Local Civil Rule 58.1. Remand by an Appellate Court

Any order or judgment of an appellate court, when filed in the office of the clerk of the district court, shall automatically become the order or judgment of the district court and be entered as such by the clerk without further order, except if such order or judgment of the appellate court requires further proceedings in the district court other than a new trial, an order shall be entered making the order or judgment of the appellate court the order or judgment of the district court.

Local Civil Rule 83.4. Proceedings to Stay the Deportation of Aliens in Deportation and Exclusion Cases

(a) The Petition or Complaint.

(1) Any application to stay an alien's deportation must be verified and, if made by someone other than the alien, must show either that the applicant has been authorized by the alien to make the application, or that the applicant is the parent, child, spouse, brother, sister, attorney or next friend of the alien.

(2) The application must state in detail why the alien's deportation is invalid. This shall include a statement setting forth the reasons why a stay is warranted, including a description of the irreparable harm that the alien will suffer if the application is not granted. The application shall also state in what manner the applicable administrative remedies have been exhausted or why such exhaustion is not required and whether any prior application to the court for the same or similar relief has been made.

(3) The application shall recite the source of the factual allegations it contains. If the Immigration and Naturalization Service has been requested to grant the alien, the alien's attorney or the alien's representative access to the alien's records and access has been refused, the application shall state who made the request to review the records, when and to whom it was made, and by whom access was refused. In the event it is claimed that insufficient time was available to examine the alien's records, the application shall state when the alien was informed of his deportation and why he has been unable to examine the records since that time.

(4) Every application to stay the alien's deportation shall contain the alien's immigration file number or other identifying information supplied to the applicant, and the decision, if any, the alien seeks the court to review. In the event this decision was oral, the application shall state the nature of the relief requested, who denied the request, the reasons for the denial and the date the request was denied.

(5) The application shall also state the basis upon which the applicant believes that this court has jurisdiction over the custodian of the alien.

(b) Commencement of the Proceeding. In any proceeding to stay the deportation of an alien, the original verified petition or complaint shall be filed with the clerk. In addition to service pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4, a copy of the petition or complaint, and application for a writ of habeas corpus or order to show cause shall be delivered to the United States attorney prior to the issuance of any writ or order staying the deportation; if the United States attorney's office is closed, delivery shall be made before 10:00 a.m. the following business day, unless the court otherwise directs.

(c) Procedure for Issuance of an Order or Writ.

(1) In the event the court determines to stay temporarily an alien's deportation, it shall briefly set forth why the order or writ was issued, endorse upon the order or writ the date and time it was issued, and set the matter for prompt hearing on the merits.

(2) All orders or writs temporarily enjoining an alien's expulsion shall expire by their terms within such time after entry, not to exceed ten (10) days, as the court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for a like period or unless the government consents to an extension for a longer period.

(d) Service of the writ or order upon the United States attorney's office within the time specified by the court shall be sufficient service to stay an alien's deportation.

(e) After delivery of an alien for deportation to the master of a ship or the commanding officer of an airplane, the writ or order staying the alien's deportation shall be addressed to and served upon only such master or commanding officer. Notice to the respondent, or the United States attorney's office, of the allowance of the writ or issuance of the order shall not operate to stay an alien's deportation if the alien is no longer in the government's custody. Service of the writ or order may not be made upon a master after the ship has left on her voyage or upon a commanding officer once the airplane has closed its doors and left the terminal.

Upon the convening of a three-judge court, in addition to the original papers on file, there shall be submitted three additional copies of all papers filed with the court.

Local Civil Rule 83.9. Contempt Proceedings in Civil Cases

(a) A proceeding to adjudicate a person in civil contempt, including a case provided for in Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 37(b)(1) and 37(b)(2)(D), shall be commenced by the service of a notice of motion or order to show cause. The affidavit upon which such notice of motion or order to show cause is based shall set out with particularity the misconduct complained of, the claim, if any, for damages occasioned thereby and such evidence as to the amount of damages as may be available to the moving party. A reasonable counsel fee, necessitated by the contempt proceedings, may be included as an item of damage. Where the alleged contemnor has appeared in the action by an attorney, the notice of motion or order to show cause and the papers upon which it is based may be served upon said attorney; otherwise service shall be made personally, in the manner provided for by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the service of a summons. If an order to show cause is sought, such order may, upon necessity shown, embody a direction to the United States marshal to arrest the alleged contemnor and hold such person unless bail is posted in an amount fixed by the order, conditioned on the appearance of such person in all further proceedings on the motion, and further conditioned that the alleged contemnor will hold himself or herself amenable to all orders of the court for surrender.

(b) If the alleged contemnor puts in issue his or her alleged misconduct or the damages thereby occasioned, said person shall upon demand be entitled to have oral evidence taken, either before the court or before a master appointed by the court. When by law such alleged contemnor is entitled to a trial by jury, said person shall make written demand before the beginning of the hearing on the application; otherwise the alleged contemnor will be deemed to have waived a trial by jury.

(c) If the alleged contemnor is found to be in contempt of court, an order shall be entered (1) reciting or referring to the verdict or findings of fact upon which the adjudication is based; (2) setting forth the amount of damages, if any, to which the complainant is entitled; (3) fixing the fine, if any, imposed by the court, which fine shall include the damages found and naming the person to whom such fine shall be payable; (4) stating any other conditions, the performance of which will operate to purge the contempt; and (5) directing, where appropriate, the arrest of the contemnor by the United States marshal and confinement until the performance of the condition fixed in the order and the payment of the fine, or until the contemnor be otherwise discharged pursuant to law. Upon such an order, no person shall be detained in prison by reason of the non-payment of the fine for a period exceeding six months. A certified copy of the order committing the contemnor shall be sufficient warrant to the marshal for the arrest and confinement of the contemnor. The complainant shall also have the same remedies against the property of the contemnor as if the order awarding the fine were a final judgment.

(d) If the alleged contemnor is found not guilty of the charges, said person shall be discharged from the proceedings and, in the discretion of the court, may have judgment against the complainant for costs and disbursements and a reasonable counsel fee.

Local Civil Rule 83.10. Court-Annexed Arbitration (Eastern District Only)

(a) Certification of Arbitrators.

(1) The Chief Judge or a judge or judges authorized by the Chief Judge to act (hereafter referred to as the certifying judge) shall certify as many arbitrators as may be determined to be necessary under this rule.

(2) An individual may be certified to serve as an arbitrator if he or she: (A) has been for at least five years a member of the bar of the highest court of a state or a District of Columbia, (B) is admitted to practice before this court, and (C) is determined by the certifying judge to be competent to perform the duties of an arbitrator.

(3) Each individual certified as an arbitrator shall take the oath or affirmation required by Title 28, U.S.C. § 453 before serving as an arbitrator.

(4) A list of all persons certified as arbitrators shall be maintained in the Office of the Clerk.

(b) Compensation and Expenses of Arbitrators. An arbitrator shall be compensated $250 for services in each case. If an arbitration hearing is protracted, the certifying judge may entertain a petition for additional compensation. If a party requests three arbitrators then each arbitrator shall be compensated $100 for service. The fees shall be paid by or pursuant to the order of the Court subject to the limits set by the Judicial Conference of the United States.

(c) Immunity of Arbitrators. Arbitrators shall be immune from liability or suit with respect to their conduct as such to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

(d) Civil Cases Eligible for Compulsory Arbitration.

(1) The Clerk of Court shall, as to all cases filed after January 1, 1986, designate and process for compulsory arbitration all civil cases (excluding social security cases, tax matters, prisoners' civil rights cases and any action based on an alleged violation of a right secured by the Constitution of the United States or if jurisdiction is based in whole or in part on Title 28, U.S.C. § 1343) wherein money damages only are being sought in an amount not in excess of $150,000.00 exclusive of interest and costs.

(2) The parties may by written stipulation agree that the Clerk of Court shall designate and process for court-annexed arbitration any civil case that is not subject to compulsory arbitration hereunder.

(3) For purposes of this Rule only, in all civil cases damages shall be presumed to be not in excess of $150,000.00 exclusive of interest and costs, unless:

(A) Counsel for plaintiff, at the time of filing the complaint, or in the event of the removal of a case from state court or transfer of a case from another district to this court, within thirty (30) days of the docketing of the case in this district, files a certification with the court that the damages sought exceed $150,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs; or

(B) Counsel for a defendant, at the time of filing a counterclaim or cross-claim files a certification with the court that the damages sought by the counter-claim or cross-claim exceed $150,000.00 exclusive of interest and costs.

(e) Referral to Arbitration.

(1) After an answer is filed in a case determined eligible for arbitration, the arbitration clerk shall send a notice to counsel setting for the date and time for the arbitration hearing. The date of the arbitration hearing set forth in the notice shall be approximately four months but in no event later than 120 days from the date the answer was filed, except that the arbitration proceeding shall not, in the absence of the consent of the parties, commence until 30 days after the disposition by the district court of any motion to dismiss the complaint, motion for judgment on the pleadings, motion to join necessary parties, or motion for summary judgment, if the motion was filed during a time period specified by the district court. The 120-day and 30-day periods specified in the preceding sentence may be modified by the court for good cause shown. The notice shall also advise counsel that they may agree to an earlier date for the arbitration hearing provided the arbitration clerk is notified with 30 days of the date of the notice. The notice shall also advise counsel that they have 90 days to complete discovery unless the judge to whom the case has been assigned orders a shorter or longer period for discovery. The judge may refer the case to a magistrate for purposes of discovery. In the event a third party has been brought into the action, this notice shall not be sent until an answer has been filed by the third party.

(2) The court shall, sua sponte, or on motion of a party, exempt any case from arbitration in which the objectives of arbitration would not be realized

(A) because the case involves complex or novel issues,

(B) because legal issues predominate over factual issues, or

(C) for other good cause.

Application by a party for an exemption from compulsory arbitration shall be made by written letter to the court not exceeding three pages in length, outlining the basis for the request and attaching relevant materials, which shall be submitted no later than 20 days after receipt of the notice to counsel setting forth the date and time for the arbitration hearing. Within three days of receiving such a letter, any opposing affected party may submit a responsive letter not exceeding three pages attaching relevant materials.

(3) Cases not originally designated as eligible for compulsory arbitration, but which in the discretion of the assigned judge, are later found to qualify, may be referred to arbitration. A U.S. District Judge or a U.S. Magistrate Judge, in cases that exceed the arbitration ceiling of $150,000 exclusive of interest and costs, in their discretion, may suggest that the parties should consider arbitration. If the parties are agreeable, an appropriate consent form signed by all parties or their representatives may be entered and filed in the case prior to scheduling an arbitration hearing.

(4) The arbitration shall be held before one arbitrator unless a panel of three arbitrators is requested by a party, in which case one of whom shall be designated as chairperson of the panel. If the amount of controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, if $5,000 or less, the arbitration shall be held before a single arbitrator. The arbitration panel shall be chosen at random by the Clerk of the Court from the lawyers who have been duly certified as arbitrators. The arbitration panel shall be scheduled to hear not more than three cases.

(5) The judge to whom the case has been assigned shall, 30 days prior to the date scheduled for the arbitration hearing, sign an order setting forth the date and time of the arbitration hearing and the names of the arbitrators designated to hear the case. If a party has filed a motion for judgment on the pleadings, summary judgment or similar relief, the judge shall not sign the order before ruling on the motion, but the filing of such a motion on or after the date of the order shall not stay the arbitration unless the judge so orders.

(6) Upon entry of the order designating the arbitrators, the arbitration clerk shall send to each arbitrator a copy of all pleadings, including the order designating the arbitrators, and the guidelines for arbitrators.

(7) Persons selected to be arbitrators shall be disqualified for bias or prejudice as provided in Title 28, U.S.C. § 144, and shall disqualify themselves in any action which they would be required under title 28, U.S.C. § 455 to disqualify themselves if they were a justice, judge, or magistrate.

(f) Arbitration Hearing.

(1) The arbitration hearing shall take place in the United States Courthouse in a courtroom assigned by the arbitration clerk on the date and at the time set forth in the order of the Court. The arbitrators are authorized to change the date and time of the hearing provided the hearing is commenced within 30 days of the hearing date set forth in the order of the Court. Any continuance beyond this 30 day period must be approved by the judge to whom the case has been assigned. The arbitration clerk must be notified immediately of any continuance.

(2) Counsel for the parties shall report settlement of the case to the arbitration clerk and all members of the arbitration panel assigned to the case.

(3) The arbitration hearing may proceed in the absence of any party who, after notice, fails to be present. In the event, however, that a party fails to participate in the arbitration process in a meaningful manner, the Court may impose appropriate sanctions, including, but no limited to, the striking of any demand for a trial de novo filed by that party.

(4) Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply to subpoenas for attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence at an arbitration hearing under this Rule. Testimony at an arbitration hearing shall be under oath or affirmation.

(5) The Federal Rules of Evidence shall be used as guides to the admissibility of evidence. Copies or photographs of all exhibits, except those intended solely for impeachment, must be marked for identification and delivered to adverse parties at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing. The arbitrators shall receive exhibits in evidence without formal proof unless counsel has been notified at least five (5) days prior to the hearing that the adverse party intends to raise an issue concerning the authenticity of the exhibit. The arbitrators may refuse to receive in evidence any exhibit, a copy or photograph of which has not been delivered to the adverse party as provided herein.

(6) A party may have a recording and transcript made of the arbitration hearing, but that party shall make all necessary arrangements and bear all expenses thereof.

(g) Arbitration Award and Judgment.

(1) The arbitration award shall be filed with the court promptly after the hearing is concluded and shall be entered as the judgment of the court after the 30 day period for requesting a trial de novo pursuant to Section (g) has expired, unless a party has demanded a trial de novo. The judgment so entered shall be subject to the same provisions of law and shall have the same force and effect as a judgment of the court in a civil action, except that it shall not be appealable. In a case involving multiple claims and parties, any segregable part of an arbitration award as to which an aggrieved party has not timely demanded a trial de novo shall become part of the final judgment with the same force and effect as a judgment of the court in a civil action, except that it shall not be appealable.

(2) The contents of any arbitration award shall not be made known to any judge who might be assigned the case,

(A) except as necessary for the court to determine whether to assess costs or attorneys fees,

(B) until the district court has entered final judgment in the action or the action has been otherwise terminated, or

(C) except for purposes of preparing the report required by section 903(b) of the Judicial Improvement and Access to Justice Act.

(3) Costs may be taxed as part of any arbitration award pursuant to Title 28, U.S.C. § 1920.

(h) Trial De Novo.

(1) Within 30 days after the arbitration award is entered on the docket, any party may demand in writing a trial de novo in the district court. Such demand shall be filed with the arbitration clerk, and served by the moving party upon all counsel of record or other parties. Withdrawal of a demand for a trial de novo shall not reinstate the arbitrators' award and the case shall proceed as if it had not been arbitrated.

(2) Upon demand for a trial de novo and the payment to the clerk required by paragraph (4) of this section, the action shall be placed on the calendar of the court and treated for all purposes as if it had not been referred to arbitration, and any right of trial by jury that a party would otherwise have shall be preserved inviolate.

(3) At the trial de novo, the court shall not admit evidence that there had been an arbitration proceeding, the nature or amount of the award, or any other matter concerning the conduct of the arbitration proceeding.

(4) Upon making a demand for trial de novo the moving party shall, unless permitted to proceed in forma pauperis, deposit with the clerk of the court an amount equal to the arbitration fees of the arbitrators as provided in Section (b). The sum so deposited shall be returned to the party demanding a trial de novo in the event that party obtains a final judgment, exclusive of interest and costs, more favorable than the arbitration award. If the party demanding a trial de novo does not obtain a more favorable result after trial or if the court determines that the party's conduct in seeking a trial de novo was in bad faith, the sum so deposited shall be paid by the Clerk to the Treasury of the United States.

Local Civil Rule 83.11. Court-Annexed Mediation (Eastern District Only)

(a) Description. Mediation is a process in which parties and counsel agree to meet with a neutral mediator trained to assist them in settling disputes. The mediator improves communication across party lines, helps parties articulate their interests and understand those of the other party, probes the strengths and weaknesses of each party's legal positions, and identifies areas of agreement and helps generate options for a mutually agreeable resolution to the dispute. In all cases, mediation provides an opportunity to explore a wide range of potential solutions and to address interests that may be outside the scope of the stated controversy or which could not be addressed by judicial action. A hallmark of mediation is its capacity to expand traditional settlement discussions and broaden resolution options, often by exploring litigant needs and interests that may be formally independent of the legal issues in controversy.

(b) Mediation Procedures.

(1) Eligible cases. Judges and Magistrate Judges may designate civil cases for inclusion in the mediation program, and when doing so shall prepare an order to that effect. Alternatively, and subject to the availability of qualified mediators, the parties may consent to participation in the mediation program by preparing and executing a stipulation signed by all parties to the action and so-ordered by the Court.

(A) Mediation deadline. Any court order designating a case for inclusion in the mediation program, however arrived at, may contain a deadline not to exceed six months from the date of entry on the docket of that order. This deadline may be extended upon motion to the Court for good cause shown.

(2) Mediators. Parties whose case has been designated for inclusion in the mediation program shall be offered the options of (a) using a mediator from the Court's panel, a listing of which is available in the Clerk's Office; (b) selecting a mediator on their own; or (c) seeking the assistance of a reputable neutral ADR organization in the selection of a mediator.

(A) Court's panel of mediators. When the parties opt to use a mediator from the Court's panel, the Clerk's Office will appoint a mediator to handle the case who (i) has been for at least five years a member of the bar of a state or the District of Columbia; (ii) is admitted to practice before this Court; and (iii) has completed the Court's requirements for mediator training and mediator expertise. If any party so requests, the appointed mediator also shall have expertise in the area of law in the case. The Clerk's Office will provide notice of their appointment to all counsel.

(B) Disqualification. Any party may submit a written request to the Clerk's Office within ten days from the date of the notification of the mediator for the disqualification of the mediator for bias or prejudice as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 144. A denial of such a request by the Clerk's Office is subject to review by the assigned Judge upon motion filed within ten days of the date of the Clerk's Office denial.

(3) Scheduling the mediation. The mediator, however chosen, will contact all attorneys to fix the date and place of the first mediation session, which shall be held within thirty days of the date the mediator was appointed or at such other time as the Court may establish.

(A) The Clerk's Office will provide counsel with copies of the Judge's order referring the case to the mediation program, the Clerk's Office notice of appointment of mediator (if applicable), and a copy of the program procedures.

(4) Written mediation statements. No less than seven days prior to the first mediation session, each party shall submit directly to the mediator a mediation statement not to exceed ten pages double-spaced, not including exhibits, outlining the key facts and legal issues in the case. The statement will also include a description of motions filed and their status, and any other information that will advance settlement prospects or make the mediation more productive. Mediation statements are not briefs and are not filed with the Court, nor shall the assigned Judge or Magistrate Judge have access to them.

(5) Mediation session(s). The mediator meets initially with all parties to the dispute and their counsel in a joint session. The mediator may hold mediation sessions in his/her office, or at the Court, or at such other place as the parties and the mediator shall agree. At this meeting, the mediator explains the mediation process and gives each party an opportunity to explain his or her views about the matters in dispute. There is then likely to be discussion and questioning among the parties as well as between the mediator and the parties.

(A) Separate caucuses. At the conclusion of the joint session, the mediator will typically caucus individually with each party. Caucuses permit the mediator and the parties to explore more fully the needs and interests underlying the stated positions. In caucuses the mediator strives to facilitate settlement on matters in dispute and the possibilities for settlement. In some cases the mediator may offer specific suggestions for settlement; in other cases the mediator may help the parties generate creative settlement proposals.

(B) Additional sessions. The mediator may conduct additional joint sessions to promote further direct discussion between the parties, or she/he may continue to work with the parties in private caucuses.

(C) Conclusion. The mediation concludes when the parties reach a mutually acceptable resolution, when the parties fail to reach an agreement, on the date the Judge or Magistrate Judge specified as the mediation deadline in their designation order, or in the event no such date has been specified by the Court, at such other time as the parties and/or the mediator may determine. The mediator has no power to impose settlement and the mediation process is confidential, whether or not a settlement is reached.

(6) Settlement. If settlement is reached, in whole or in part, the agreement, which shall be binding upon all parties, will be put into writing and counsel will file a stipulation of dismissal or such other document as may be appropriate. If the case does not settle, the mediator will immediately notify the Clerk's Office, and the case or the portion of the case that has not settled will continue in the litigation process.

(c) Attendance at Mediation Sessions.

(1) In all civil cases designated by the Court for inclusion in the mediation program, attendance at one mediation session shall be mandatory: thereafter, attendance shall be voluntary. The Court requires of each party that the attorney who has primary responsibility for handling the trial of the matter attend the mediation sessions.

(2) In addition, the Court may require, and if it does not, the mediator may require the attendance at the mediation session of a party or its representative in the case of a business or governmental entity or a minor, with authority to settle the matter and to bind the party. This requirement reflects the Court's view that the principal values of mediation include affording litigants with an opportunity to articulate their positions and interests directly to the other parties and to a mediator and to hear, first hand, the other party's version of the matters in dispute. Mediation also enables parties to search directly with the other party for mutually agreeable solutions.

(d) Confidentiality.

(1) The parties will be asked to sign an agreement of confidentiality at the beginning of the first mediation session to the following effect:

(A) Unless the parties otherwise agree, all written and oral communications made by the parties and the mediator in connection with or during any mediation session are confidential and may not be disclosed or used for any purpose unrelated to the mediation.

(B) The mediator shall not be called by any party as a witness in any court proceeding related to the subject matter of the mediation unless related to the alleged misconduct of the mediator.

(2) Mediators will maintain the confidentiality of all information provided to, or discussed with, them. The Clerk of Court and the ADR Administrator are responsible for program administration, evaluation, and liaison between the mediators and the Court and will maintain strict confidentiality.

(3) No papers generated by the mediation process will be included in Court files, nor shall the Judge or Magistrate Judge assigned to the case have access to them. Information about what transpires during mediation sessions will not at any time be made known to the Court, except to the extent required to resolve issues of noncompliance with the mediation procedures. However, communications made in connection with or during a mediation may be disclosed if all parties and, if appropriate as determined by the mediator, the mediator so agree. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit parties from entering into written agreements resolving some or all of the case or entering and filing with the Court procedural or factual stipulations based on suggestions or agreements made in connection with a mediation.

(e) Oath and Disqualification of Mediator.

(1) Each individual certified as a mediator shall take the oath or affirmation prescribed by 28 U.S.C. §453 before serving as a mediator.

(2) No mediator may serve in any matter in violation of the standards set forth in Section 455 of Title 28 of the United States Code. If a mediator is concerned that a circumstance covered by subparagraph (a) of that section might exist, e.g., if the mediator's law firm has represented one or more of the parties, or if one of the lawyers who would appear before the mediator at the mediation session is involved in a case on which an attorney in the mediator's firm is working, the mediator shall promptly disclose that circumstance to all counsel in writing. A party who believes that the assigned mediator has a conflict of interest shall bring this concern to the attention of the Clerk's Office in writing, within ten calendar days of learning the source of the potential conflict or the objection to such a potential conflict shall be deemed to have been waived. Any objections that cannot be resolved by the parties in consultation with the Clerk's Office shall be referred to the Judge or Magistrate Judge who has designated the case for inclusion in the mediation program.

(3) A party who believes that the assigned mediator has engaged in misconduct in such capacity shall bring this concern to the attention of the Clerk's Office in writing, within ten calendar days of learning of the alleged misconduct or the objection to such alleged misconduct shall be deemed to have been waived. Any objections that cannot be resolved by the parties in consultation with the Clerk's Office shall be referred to the Judge who has designated the case for inclusion in the mediation program.

(f) Services of the Mediators.

(1) Participation by mediators in the program is on a voluntary basis, without compensation. Attorneys serving on the Court's panel will be given credit for pro bono work.

(2) Appointment to the Court's panel is for a three year term, subject to renewal. A panelist will not be expected to serve on more than two cases during any twelve month period and will not be required to accept each assignment offered. Repeated rejection of assignments will result in the attorney being dropped from the panel.

(g) Immunity of the Mediators. Mediators shall be immune from liability or suit with respect to their conduct as such to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

Local Civil Rule 83.12. Alternative Dispute Resolution (Southern District Only)

Introduction

The Court's existing alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") program of mediation shall continue as set forth below.

(a) Definition

Mediation is a confidential ADR process in which a disinterested third party directs settlement discussions but does not evaluate the merits of either side's position or render any judgments. By holding meetings, defining issues, diffusing emotions and suggesting possibilities of resolution, the mediator assists the parties in reaching their own negotiated settlement. The main benefit of mediation is that it can produce creative solutions to complex disputes often unavailable in traditional litigation.

(b) Administration

Staff Counsel, appointed by the Clerk of the Court, shall administer the Court's mediation program. The Chief Judge shall appoint one or more judicial officers to oversee the program.

(c) Service as a Mediator

An individual may serve as a mediator if he or she: 1) has been a member of the Bar of any state or the District of Columbia for at least five years; 2) is admitted to practice in this Court; and 3) is certified by the Chief Judge or the Judicial Officer appointed by the Chief Judge pursuant to paragraph (b) above to be competent to perform the duties of a mediator. Each individual certified as a mediator shall take the oath or affirmation prescribed by 28 U.S.C. § 453 and complete the training program provided by the Court before serving as a mediator.

(d) Consideration of Mediation

In all civil cases eligible for mediation pursuant to paragraph (e), each party shall consider the use of mediation and shall report to the assigned Judge at the initial case management conference whether the party believes mediation may facilitate the resolution of the lawsuit.

(e) Entry into the Program

All civil cases other than social security, tax, prisoner civil rights and pro se matters are eligible for mediation, whether assigned to Foley Square or White Plains.

The assigned Judge or Magistrate Judge may determine that a case is appropriate for mediation and may order that case to mediation with or without the consent of the parties. Alternatively, the parties may notify the assigned Judge and Staff Counsel at any time of their desire to mediate by filing a stipulation to that effect signed by all parties. Notification of the date, time and place will be forwarded by Staff Counsel to the parties.

(f) Scheduling Orders

In no event is the scheduling of mediation to interfere with any scheduling order of the Court.

(g) Assignment of the Mediator

Staff Counsel shall assign a mediator from the individuals certified as mediators and notify the mediator and the parties of the assignment.

(h) Disqualification

The mediator shall disqualify himself or herself in any action in which he or she would be required under 28 U.S.C. § 455 to be disqualified if a Justice, Judge or Magistrate Judge. Any party may submit a written request to Staff Counsel within ten days from the date of the notification of the name of the mediator for the disqualification of the mediator for bias or prejudice as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 144. A denial of such a request by Staff Counsel is subject to review by the assigned Judge upon motion filed within ten days of the date of Staff Counsel's denial.

(i) Submission

Unless otherwise agreed, upon notification of the scheduled date of the mediation session but in no event less than seven days before the mediation, each party shall prepare and forward to the mediator (but not to the adversary) a memorandum presenting in concise form, not exceeding ten double-spaced pages, the party's contentions as to both liability and damages and the status of any settlement negotiations.

(j) Mediation Sessions

The attorney primarily responsible for each party's case shall personally attend the first mediation session and shall be fully authorized to resolve the matter and prepared to discuss all liability issues, damage issues, and the party's settlement position in detail and in good faith. At the discretion of the mediator, the party, if an individual, or a representative of the party, if a corporation, partnership or governmental entity, with knowledge of the facts and full settlement authority, may be required to attend.

The mediation will conclude when the parties reach a resolution of some or all issues in the case or where the mediator concludes that resolution (or further resolution) is impossible. If resolution is reached, a binding agreement shall be signed by all the parties, and a stipulation of discontinuance or other appropriate document filed promptly. Where resolution is not reached, the assigned judge shall be notified promptly.

(k) Confidentiality

The entire mediation process shall be confidential. The parties and the mediator shall not disclose information regarding the process, including settlement terms, to the Court or to third persons unless all parties agree. The identity of the mediator shall not be disclosed, including to the Court. However, persons authorized by the Court to administer or evaluate the program shall have access to information and documents necessary to do so, and the parties, counsel and mediators may respond to confidential inquiries or surveys by such persons.

The mediation process shall be treated as a compromise negotiation for purposes of the Federal Rules of Evidence and state rules of evidence. The mediator is disqualified as a witness, consultant, attorney, or expert in any pending or future action relating to the dispute, including actions between persons not parties to the mediation process.

(l) Compensation of Mediators and Locations of Sessions

All mediators shall serve without compensation and be eligible for credit for pro bono service. All ADR sessions will take place at the "ADR Center" in the Federal Courthouses in Manhattan or White Plains, as designated.

(a) Presentation of Claim. When a vessel or other property has been arrested, attached, or garnished, and is in the hands of the marshal or custodian substituted therefor, anyone having a claim against the vessel or property is required to present the claim by filing an intervening complaint, and not by filing an original complaint, unless otherwise ordered by a judicial officer. Upon the satisfaction of the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 24, the clerk shall forthwith deliver a conformed copy of the complaint to the marshal, who shall deliver the copy to the vessel or custodian of the property. Local Admiralty Rule E.4. Preservation of Property

Whenever property is attached or arrested pursuant to the provisions of Supplemental Rule E(4)(b) that permit the marshal or other person having the warrant to execute the process without taking actual possession of the property, and the owner or occupant of the property is thereby permitted to remain in possession, the court, on motion of any party or on its own motion, may enter any order necessary to preserve the value of the property, its contents, and any income derived therefrom, and to prevent the destruction, removal or diminution in value of such property, contents and income.

Local Criminal Rule 23.1. Free Press-Fair Trial Directives

(a) It is the duty of the lawyer or law firm, and of non-lawyer personnel employed by a lawyer's office or subject to a lawyer's supervision, private investigators acting under the supervision of a criminal defense lawyer, and government agents and police officers, not to release or authorize the release of non-public information or opinion which a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication, in connection with pending or imminent criminal litigation with which they are associated, if there is a substantial likelihood that such dissemination will interfere with a fair trial or otherwise prejudice the due administration of justice.

(b) With respect to a grand jury or other pending investigation of any criminal matter, a lawyer participating in or associated with the investigation (including government lawyers and lawyers for targets, subjects, and witnesses in the investigation) shall refrain from making any extrajudicial statement which a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication that goes beyond the public record or that is not necessary to inform the public that the investigation is underway, to describe the general scope of the investigation, to obtain assistance in the apprehension of a suspect, to warn the public of any dangers or otherwise to aid in the investigation, if there is a substantial likelihood that such dissemination will interfere with a fair trial or otherwise prejudice the administration of justice.

(c) During a jury trial of any criminal matter, including the period of selection of the jury, no lawyer or law firm associated with the prosecution or defense shall give or authorize any extrajudicial statement or interview relating to the trial or the parties or issues in the trial which a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication if there is a substantial likelihood that such dissemination will interfere with a fair trial; except that the lawyer or the law firm may quote from or refer without comment to public records of the court in the case.

(d) Statements concerning the following subject matters presumptively involve a substantial likelihood that their public dissemination will interfere with a fair trial or otherwise prejudice the due administration of justice within the meaning of this rule:

(1) The prior criminal record (including arrests, indictments or other charges of crime), or the character or reputation of the accused, except that the lawyer or law firm may make a factual statement of the accused's name, age, residence, occupation and family status; and if the accused has not been apprehended, a lawyer associated with the prosecution may release any information necessary to aid in the accused's apprehension or to warn the public of any dangers the accused may present;

(2) The existence or contents of any confession, admission or statement given by the accused, or the refusal or failure of the accused to make any statement;

(3) The performance of any examinations or tests or the accused's refusal or failure to submit to an examination or test;

(4) The identity, testimony or credibility of prospective witnesses, except that the lawyer or law firm may announce the identity of the victim if the announcement is not otherwise prohibited by law;

(5) The possibility of a plea of guilty to the offense charged or a lesser offense;

(6) Information the lawyer or law firm knows is likely to be inadmissible at trial and would if disclosed create a substantial likelihood of prejudicing an impartial trial; and

(7) Any opinion as to the accused's guilt or innocence or as to the merits of the case or the evidence in the case.

(e) Statements concerning the following subject matters presumptively do not involve a substantial likelihood that their public dissemination will interfere with a fair trial or otherwise prejudice the due administration of justice within the meaning of this rule:

(1) An announcement, at the time of arrest, of the fact and circumstances of arrest (including time and place of arrest, resistance, pursuit and use of weapons), the identity of the investigating and arresting officer or agency and the length of investigation;

(2) An announcement, at the time of seizure, stating whether any items of physical evidence were seized and, if so, a description of the items seized (but not including any confession, admission or statement);

(3) The nature, substance or text of the charge, including a brief description of the offense charged;

(4) Quoting or referring without comment to public records of the court in the case;

(5) An announcement of the scheduling or result of any stage in the judicial process, or an announcement that a matter is no longer under investigation;

(6) A request for assistance in obtaining evidence; and

(7) An announcement, without further comment, that the accused denies the charges, and a brief description of the nature of the defense.

(f) Nothing in this rule is intended to preclude the formulation or application of more restrictive rules relating to the release of information about juvenile or other offenders, to preclude the holding of hearings or the lawful issuance of reports by legislative, administrative or investigative bodies, or to preclude any lawyer from replying to charges of misconduct that are publicly made against said lawyer.

(g) All court supporting personnel, including, among others, marshals, deputy marshals, court clerks, bailiffs and court reporters and employees or sub-contractors retained by the court-appointed official reporters, are prohibited from disclosing to any person, without authorization by the court, information relating to a pending grand jury proceeding or criminal case that is not part of the public records of the court. The divulgence by such court supporting personnel of information concerning grand jury proceedings, in camera arguments and hearings held in chambers or otherwise outside the presence of the public is also forbidden.

(h) The court, on motion of either party or on its own motion, may issue a special order governing such matters as extrajudicial statements by parties and witnesses likely to interfere with the rights of the accused to a fair trial by an impartial jury, the seating and conduct in the courtroom of spectators and news media representatives, the management and sequestration of jurors and witnesses and any other matters which the court may deem appropriate for inclusion in such order. In determining whether to impose such a special order, the court shall consider whether such an order will be necessary to ensure an impartial jury and must find that other, less extreme available remedies, singly or collectively, are not feasible or would not effectively mitigate the pretrial publicity and bring about a fair trial. Among the alternative remedies to be considered are: change of venue, postponing the trial, a searching voir dire, emphatic jury instructions, and sequestration of jurors.

(i) Any lawyer who violates the terms of this rule may be disciplined pursuant to Local Civil Rule 1.5.

(b) Within twenty (20) days after an attorney files and serves a notice of appearance in a criminal case, said attorney shall submit to the Clerk of the District Court a certificate of the court for at least one of the states in which the attorney is a member of the bar, which has been issued within thirty (30) days and states that the attorney is a member in good standing of the bar of that state court. If the Clerk is satisfied that the submitted certificate shows the attorney to be a member in good standing of the bar of a state described in Local Civil Rule 1.3(a), said attorney need not file and serve any further certification to the Clerk pursuant to this rule in connection with any subsequent appearances in this court.

These rules are adopted for the internal management of the case load of the court and shall not be deemed to vest any rights in litigants or their attorneys and shall be subject to such amendments from time to time as shall be approved by the court.

Rule 1. Individual Assignment System

This court shall operate under an individual assignment system to assure continuous and close judicial supervision of every case. Each civil and criminal action and proceeding, except as otherwise provided, shall be assigned by lot to one judge for all purposes. The system shall be administered by an assignment committee in such a manner that all active judges, except the chief judge, shall be assigned substantially an equal share and kind of the work of the court over a period of time. There shall be assigned or transferred to the chief judge such matters as the chief judge is willing and able to undertake, consistent with the chief judge's administrative duties.

Rule 2. Assignment Committee

An assignment committee is established for the administration of the assignment system. The committee shall consist of the chief judge and two other active judges selected by the chief judge, each to serve for one year. The chief judge shall also select two other active judges, each to serve for a period of one year, as alternate members of the committee.

The assignment committee shall supervise and rule upon all problems relating to assignments under this system, in accordance with these rules, as amended from time to time by the board of judges.

Rule 3. Part I

Part I is established for hearing and determining certain emergency and miscellaneous matters in civil and criminal cases and for processing criminal actions and proceedings through the pleading stage. Judges shall choose assignment to Part I from an appropriate schedule, in order of their seniority, for periods not to exceed three weeks in each year. The assignment committee may, on consent of the judges affected, change such assignments, if necessary, to meet the needs of the court.

Part I shall be open from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday except on holidays and a magistrate judge shall be available at the courthouse on Saturdays up to 12:00 p.m. The judge presiding in Part I shall be available for emergency matters.

The judge presiding in Part I may fix such other times for any proceeding as necessary.

Comment:

Currently, the chambers telephone number of the presiding Part I judge is displayed on the Part I portion of the Court's website. Under this solution, designated chambers personnel would check chambers voicemail at designated intervals , perhaps every two hours, during the waking hours when chambers is not manned. The designee would log in the call, assure that the caller was a lawyer and then contact the Part I judge for instructions. [Effective December 22, 2008]

Rule 4. Civil Actions or Proceedings (Filing and Assignment)

(a) Filing with the Clerk.

All civil actions and proceedings shall be numbered consecutively by year upon the filing of the first document in the case.

When a complaint or the first document is filed in a civil action or proceeding, counsel shall complete and file an information and designation form, in triplicate, indicating: (1) the title of the action; (2) the residence address and county of each plaintiff and defendant; (3) the basis of federal jurisdiction; (4) whether the action is a class action; (5) a brief statement of the nature of the action and amount involved; (6) whether the action is claimed to be a related case within the meaning of Rule 15, and if so, the docket number and name of the judge assigned to the earlier filed related action; (7) the category of the case; (8) the name of the sentencing judge, if brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2255; and (9) the name, address and telephone number of the attorney of record and of the attorney's firm, if any. Forms for this purpose will be on file in the office of the clerk of the court and shall be furnished to counsel.

(b) Assignment by the Clerk by Lot.

All civil actions and proceedings, except applications for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, upon being filed and all appeals from the bankruptcy court upon being docketed in this court shall be assigned by lot within each designated category to one judge for all purposes.

An action, case or proceeding may not be dismissed and thereafter refiled for the purpose of obtaining a different judge. If an action, case or proceeding, or one essentially the same, is dismissed and refiled, it shall be assigned to the same judge. It is the duty of every attorney appearing to bring the facts of the refiling to the attention of the clerk.

Rule 5. Civil Proceedings in Part I

Admissions to the bar and civil matters other than emergencies shall be heard on Tuesdays commencing at 11:00 a.m. Naturalization proceedings shall be conducted on Friday, commencing at 11:00 a.m.

(a) Miscellaneous Civil Matters.

The judge presiding in Part I shall hear and determine all miscellaneous proceedings in civil matters, such as application for naturalization, for admission to the bar, for relief relating to orders and subpoenas of administrative agencies and shall purge jurors in the central jury part as and when required. When a modification or further action on such determination is sought, it shall be referred to the judge who made the original determination even though said judge is no longer sitting in Part I.

(b) Civil Emergency Matters.

The Part I judge shall hear and determine all emergency matters in civil cases which have been assigned to a judge when the assigned judge is absent or has expressly referred the matter to Part I because said judge is unavailable due to extraordinary circumstances. Depending on which procedures the Part I judge deems the more efficient, the Part I judge may either dispose of an emergency matter only to the extent necessary to meet the emergency, or, on consent of the assigned judge and notice to the clerk, transfer the action to himself or herself for all further proceedings.

(c) Subsequent Emergency Proceedings.

If a civil emergency matter is brought before the Part 1 judge and the judge concludes that for lack of emergency or otherwise the proceeding should not be determined in Part I the party who brought the proceeding shall not present the same matter again to any other Part I judge unless relevant circumstances have changed in the interim in which case the party shall advise the judge of the prior proceedings and changed circumstances.

Rule 6. Criminal Actions or Proceedings (Filing and Assignment)

(a) Filing With the Clerk.

Criminal actions shall be numbered consecutively by year upon the filing of the indictment or information. The number of a superseding indictment or information shall be preceded by the the letter "S".

When an indictment or information is filed, the United States attorney shall simultaneously file the original and two copies of the indictment or information. The United States attorney shall also supply an information and designation form, in triplicate, indicating: (1) the category of crime charged and the number of counts; (2) the maximum penalty for each count; (3) a statement as to whether the defendant is in custody and, if so where; (4) the name and telephone extension of the assistant United States attorney in charge of the case; and (5) all other data required by the information and designation form.

Rule 7. Criminal Proceedings

Indictments designated for Foley Square may be returned by the grand jury to the magistrate judge presiding in the criminal part, in open court. Indictments designated for White Plains may be returned by the grand jury to the magistrate judge presiding in the White Plains Courthouse, or in his or her absence, before any available judge.

The judge presiding in Part I shall:

(a) Conduct all preliminary criminal proceedings, such as empaneling the grand jury.

(b) Hear and determine, except for matters referable to a magistrate judge and so referred, all proceedings in criminal actions before the entry of a plea, except as provided in Rule 8(c), 8(d) and 8(e).

(c) Hear and determine all emergency matters in criminal cases which have been assigned to a judge when the assigned judge is absent or has expressly referred the matter to Part I because said judge is unavailable due to extraordinary circumstances.

(d) Hear and determine all matters relating to proceedings before the grand jury. When a modification or further action on such determination is sought, however, it shall be referred to the judge who made the original determination even though said judge is no longer sitting in Part 1.

Rule 8. Arraignments and Assignments in Criminal Cases

(a) Assignments.

In a criminal case, after an indictment has been returned by the Grand Jury or a notice has been filed by the United States Attorney's Office of an intention to file an information upon the defendant's waiver of indictment, the magistrate judge on duty will randomly draw the name of a judge in open court from the criminal wheel, and assign the case to said judge for all purposes thereafter. Said notice to file an information upon the defendant's waiver of indictment shall be signed by the Unites States Attorney's Office and by the defendant's attorney. Waiver of indictment cases will not be assigned a criminal docket number until the waiver has been accepted by the assigned judge. Sealed indictments will be assigned a criminal docket number upon filing, but a judge will not be selected until such time that the indictment is unsealed.

(b) Arraignments.

The United States Attorney's Office will promptly contact the judge to whom the case is assigned and request the scheduling of a pretrial conference at which the defendant will be arraigned.

(c) Waiver of Indictments.

If any person offers to waive indictment, the judge to whom the case has been assigned will conduct such proceedings as may be required by law to establish that the waiver is both knowing and voluntary before an information is filed. The judge shall then arraign the defendant and call on the defendant to enter a plea. If the defendant fails to waive indictment and is subsequently indicted on the same or similar charges, the case shall be assigned by the clerk to the same judge to whom the original information was assigned.

(d) Assignment of Superseding Indictments and Informations.

A superseding indictment or information will be assigned directly and immediately for the entry of a plea and all further proceedings to the same judge to whom the original indictment or information was assigned.

(e) This rule applies to Foley Square. The judges in the White Plains Courthouse will continue to follow such procedures as they find convenient.

Rule 9. Cases Certified for Prompt Trial or Disposition

Immediately after assignment to a judge, civil and criminal actions shall be screened by the assignment committee for the purpose of identifying cases which are likely to be subject to delays and which, because of exceptional and special circumstances, demand extraordinary priority, prompt disposition, and immediate judicial supervision in the public interest.

When a case has been so identified by the assignment committee, the committee shall certify that the case requires extraordinary priority and a prompt trial or other disposition within sixty (60) days and shall so advise the judge to whom the case has been assigned. The judge so assigned shall advise the assignment committee whether said judge can accord the case the required priority. In the event the judge so assigned advises the assignment committee that he or she cannot accord the required priority, the case shall immediately be assigned to another judge by lot and the same procedure followed until the case is assigned to a judge able to accord it the required priority. The name of the judge to be so assigned shall be drawn by lot in the same manner as other civil and criminal actions are initially assigned.

Rule 10. Motions

(a) Civil Motions.

Civil motions shall be made within the time required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Civil Rules of this court. Motions shall be made returnable before the assigned judge.

(b) Criminal Motions.

Motions in criminal actions shall be made returnable before the assigned judge at such time as said judge directs. Criminal motions must be made within the time required by the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Criminal Rules of this court, except that the time for motions otherwise required by such rules to be made before the entry of a plea shall be made within ten (10) days after the entry of a plea, or at such other time as the assigned judge directs.

Rule 11. Amendments of Pro Se Petitions for Collateral Relief from Convictions

(a) Federal Convictions.

When a pro se motion for collateral relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 is filed, the pro se clerk shall first ascertain whether the petition is in proper form and, if not, take appropriate steps to have it corrected. The petition shall be submitted for all further proceedings to the judge who accepted the plea or sentenced the defendant, whichever is applicable. The judge may either act on the application without responsive papers or advise the United States attorney of the date when answering or reply papers are due.

If the judge concerned is deceased; is a visiting judge who declines to entertain the application within a reasonable time because of illness, disqualification, disability or prolonged absence; or a senior judge who elects not to entertain the application, the application shall be assigned by lot.

(b) State Convictions.

When a pro se petition for collateral relief from a state conviction is filed, the pro se clerk shall first ascertain whether the petition is in proper form and if not take proper steps to have it corrected. If the petitioner seeks to leave to proceed in forma pauperis, the petition shall be first submitted to the pro se law clerk for study and, where appropriate, a recommendation shall be submitted to a magistrate judge designated by the chief judge for intermediate review and ultimate submission to the chief judge for disposition.

If the petition is not dismissed by the chief judge, the papers shall be sent to the pro se clerk for further processing. The pro se clerk shall ascertain if the petition is related to any prior application and, if so, advise the clerk, who shall assign the case directly to the judge who last acted upon the related application. If the related application was before a deceased or a retired judge, or if the application is unrelated to any prior application, the clerk shall assign the case by lot.

Rule 12. Assignments to New Judges

When a new judge is inducted, the assignment committee shall transfer to the new judge an equal share of all cases then pending (including cases on the suspense docket). The cases shall be taken equally, by lot, from the dockets of each of the judges' most recent chronological list of cases which have been designated by the transferor as eligible for transfer. No case shall be transferred without the consent of the transferor judge. The assignment committee shall also direct the clerk to add the name of the new judge to the random selection system for assigning new cases to active judges.

Rule 13. Assignments to Senior Judges

If a senior judge is willing and able to undertake assignment of new cases for all purposes, said judge shall advise the assignment committee of the number and categories of new cases which said judge is willing and able to undertake. New cases in the requested number in each category shall then be assigned to said judge in the same manner as new cases are assigned to active judges.

If a senior judge is willing and able to undertake assignment of pending cases from other judges, said judge may (1) accept assignment of all or any part of any case from any judge on mutual consent, or (2) advise the assignment committee of the number, status and categories of pending cases which said judge is willing to undertake. Such cases will be drawn by lot from current lists provided to the assignment committee by the judges wishing to transfer cases under this rule. If a senior judge does not terminate any action so transferred, it shall be reassigned to the transferor judge.

Rule 14. Assignments to Visiting Judges

When a visiting judge is assigned to this district, said judge shall advise the assignment committee of the number and categories of pending cases which said judge is required or willing to accept. The assignment committee shall then transfer to said judge the required number of cases in each category by drawing them equally and by lot from each judge's list of cases ready for trial, but no case shall be so transferred without the consent of the transferor judge. If the visiting judge does not terminate the action, it shall be reassigned to the transferor judge.

Rule 15. Transfer of Related Cases

(a) Subject to the limitations set forth below, a civil case will be deemed related to one or more other civil cases and will be transferred for consolidation or coordinated pretrial proceedings when the interests of justice and efficiency will be served. In determining relatedness, a judge will consider whether (i) a substantial saving of judicial resources would result; or (ii) the just efficient and economical conduct of the litigations would be advanced; or (iii) the convenience of the parties or witnesses would be served. Without intending to limit the criteria considered by the judges of this court in determining relatedness, a congruence of parties or witnesses or the likelihood of a consolidated or joint trial or joint pre-trial discovery may be deemed relevant.

(b) Criminal cases are not treated as related to civil cases or vice versa. Criminal cases are not treated as related unless a motion is granted for a joint trial. Bankruptcy appeals are not considered related merely because they arise from the same bankruptcy proceeding.

(c) When a civil case is being filed or removed, the person filing or removing shall disclose on an appropriate form, to be furnished by the Clerk's Office, any contention of relatedness. A copy of such form shall be served with the complaint or notice of removal. A case filed or removed and designated as related shall be forwarded to the judge before whom the earlier filed case is then pending who shall accept or reject the case in his or her sole discretion. Cases rejected by the judge as being not related shall be assigned by random selection. Any party believing its case to be related to another may apply on notice in writing to the judge assigned in its case for transfer to the judge having the related case with the lowest docket number. If the assigned judge believes the case should be transferred, he or she shall refer the question to the judge who would receive the transfer. In the event of disagreement among the assigned judges, a judge (but not a party) may refer the question to the assignment committee. Litigants will not be heard by the assignment committee.

(d) Motions in civil and criminal cases to consolidate, or for a joint trial, are regulated by the Federal Rules. A defendant in a criminal case may move on notice to have all of his or her sentences in this district imposed by a single judge. All such motions shall be noticed for hearing before the judge having the lowest docket number, with courtesy copies to be provided to the judge or judges having the cases with higher docket numbers.

(e) Nothing contained in this rule limits the use of Rule 1, infra, for reassignment of all or part of any case from the docket of one judge to that of another by agreement of the respective judges.

Rule 16. Transfer of Cases by Consent

Any active or senior judge, upon written advice to the assignment committee, may transfer directly any case or any part of any case on said judge's docket to any consenting active or senior judge except where Rule 18 applies.

Rule 17. Transfers from Senior Judges

When an active judge becomes a senior judge, or later as the judge chooses, the judge may keep as much of his or her existing docket as said judge desires and furnish the assignment committee with a list of all cases which the judge desires to have transferred. The assignment committee will distribute these cases as equally as is feasible, by lot, to each active judge.

Rule 18. Transfer Because of Disqualification, etc.

In case the assigned judge is disqualified or upon request, if said judge has presided at a mistrial or former trial of the case, upon written notice to it, the assignment committee shall transfer the case by lot.

Rule 19. Transfer of Cases Because of Death, Resignation, Prolonged Illness, Disability, Unavoidable Absence, or Excessive Backlog of a Judge

The assignment committee shall, in the case of death or resignation, and may, in the event of prolonged illness, disability, unavoidable absence of an assigned judge, or the build up of an excessive backlog, transfer any case or cases pending on the docket of such judge by distributing them as equally as is feasible by lot, to all remaining active judges and to such senior judges who are willing and able to undertake them.

Rule 20. Transfer of Cases to the Suspense Docket

A civil case which, for reasons beyond the control of the court, can neither be tried nor otherwise terminated shall be transferred to the suspense docket. In the event the case becomes activated, it shall be restored to the docket of the transferor judge if available, otherwise it shall be reassigned by lot.

Note: The following provisions of the Plan of Operation for the White Plains Courthouse, as amended, are reprinted here, for information, since they affect the Division of the Business of the Court.

Rule 21. Designation of White Plains Cases

If no district judge is available in the White Plains Courthouse, such arraignment may be conducted before a magistrate judge at White Plains. If neither a judge nor a magistrate judge [at White Plains] and likely to remain unavailable until the next date of arraignment in Foley Square, such defendants shall be arraigned in Part I.

Bail applications in any case designated for White Plains may be heard before the magistrate judge at White Plains, or, if he/she is unavailable, before a judge in White Plains, or in Part I if no magistrate judge or judge is available.

Rule 22. Reassignment of Cases

The judge to whom the case is assigned may reassign it in the interest of justice or sound judicial administration. If the Judge to whom the case is assigned determines that it should be reassigned, it is sent to the clerk for reassignment. If upon reassignment there is a dispute as to the proper place of holding court, it will be referred to the Assignment Committee for final determination. If the case is reassigned, it will be reassigned as if it were a new filing, but will retain its original case number.

Rule 23. Removed Actions and Bankruptcy Matters

Actions removed from a state court in New York County or Bronx County will be assigned to Foley Square. Actions removed from a state court in any of the other counties within the district will be assigned to White Plains. In either case, the attorney for the defendant may move for reassignment as provided in the section entitled Reassignment of Cases.

Bankruptcy appeals from the White Plains and Poughkeepsie bankruptcy courts are also assigned to said judge(s).

Rule 24. Caseload of White Plains Judge(s)

District judges assigned to White Plains will receive writs of habeas corpus arising out of state convictions obtained in the counties of Westchester, Rockland, Putnam, Dutchess, Orange and Sullivan; and those arising out of state convictions in the counties of Bronx and New York will be assigned to Judges in the Foley Square Courthouse.

Rule 26. Filing at Either Courthouse

GUIDELINES FOR THE DIVISION OF BUSINESS AMONG DISTRICT JUDGES

EASTERN DISTRICT

ADOPTED PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 137

These rules are adopted for the internal management of the case load of the court and shall not be deemed to vest any rights in litigants or their attorneys and shall be subject to such amendments from time to time as shall be approved by the court.

50.1 Categories and Classification of Cases; Information on Cases and Parties

(a) Categories of Cases.

Cases shall be divided into the following main categories:

(1) Civil.

(A) Regular.

(B) Multidistrict litigation.

(2) Criminal.

(3) Miscellaneous.

(b) Information Sheet.

The party filing the initial paper in a civil or criminal case shall complete and attach an information sheet. The information sheet shall be placed in the case file.

Where it appears to the Court that the filing party's reasons for joinder of parties are not apparent from the face of the complaint, the Clerk of Court is authorized to request a written explanation consistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 19 and any other appropriate Federal Rule. The response of the filing party will be docketed and a copy forwarded to the assigned judicial officer.

(c) Disclosure of Interested Parties.

To enable judges and magistrates to evaluate possible disqualification or recusal, counsel for a private (nongovernmental) party shall submit at the time of initial pleading a certificate identifying any corporate parent, subsidiaries, or affiliates of that party.

(d) Long Island Cases.

(1) A criminal case shall be designated a "Long Island case" if the crime was allegedly committed wholly or in substantial part in Nassau or Suffolk County.

(2) A civil case shall be designated a Long Island case if the cause arose wholly or in substantial part in Nassau or Suffolk County.

(3) As provided in 50.2(f) a party may move to designate a case as a Long Island case or to cancel such designation on the grounds that such action will serve the convenience of the parties and witnesses or is otherwise in the interests of justice.

(e) Miscellaneous Cases.

All matters that do not receive a civil or criminal docket number shall be given a miscellaneous docket number and assigned to the miscellaneous judge. The matter will continue to be assigned to that judge after he or she ceases to be miscellaneous judge.

50.2 Assignment of Cases

(a) Time of Assignment.

The clerk shall assign a civil case upon the filing of the initial pleading. In a criminal case after an indictment is returned or after an information (including a juvenile information under 18 U.S.C. § 5032) or a motion to transfer under 18 U.S.C. § 5032 has been filed, the United States Attorney shall refer the case to the clerk who shall then assign the case. The United States attorney shall arrange with the judge to whom the case is assigned, or if that judge is absent or unavailable as provided in 50.5, with the miscellaneous judge, to have the defendant arraigned and a plea entered as promptly as practicable.

(b) Random Selection Procedure.

All cases shall be randomly assigned by the clerk or his designee in public view in one of the clerk's offices in such a manner that each active judge shall receive as nearly as possible the same number of cases, except as provided in paragraph (h) Where a party or his counsel requests prior to selection that he or she be present at the selection, the clerk shall make reasonable efforts to comply with the request. In Brooklyn civil cases a magistrate judge shall be drawn at the same time and in the same manner as a judge. All Long Island civil cases shall be assigned to the Long Island magistrate judge. The parties to any Long Island case assigned to a Brooklyn judge may stipulate that the case be assigned to the Long Island magistrate judge, for pretrial purposes.

(c) Assignment of Civil Cases.

There shall be separate Brooklyn, Uniondale and Hauppauge civil assignment wheels. At least quarterly the Chief Judge shall fix the proportion of cases to be assigned to the Long Island courthouses so as to distribute the civil cases relatively equally among all the active judges.

(d) Assignment of Criminal Cases.

(1) There shall be a Brooklyn criminal and a Long Island criminal assignment wheel.

(2) There shall be a Brooklyn and Long Island criminal misdemeanor assignment wheels for the random assignment of these matters to a magistrate.

(e) Place of Trial.

(2) in a civil case, within the time allowed to respond to the complaint.

(g) Special Cases.

(1) The miscellaneous judge shall send all narcotics addict commitment cases involving "eligible individuals" as defined by 28 U.S.C. § 2901(g) to the clerk for assignment as provided in paragraph (b).

(2) Pro se applications or claims by persons in custody shall be filed without prepayment of fees upon receipt, prior to decision on their in forma pauperis petitions.

(3) Multidistrict litigation is to be assigned to the judge selected by the multidistrict litigation panel; subject to reassignment by the Chief Judge of the Eastern District of New York, according to the usual reassignment rules of the district, to adjust caseload distribution in the interests of justice.

(h) Chief Judge; Senior Judges; Temporarily Overloaded Judges; Notice of Removal from Wheel.

The chief judge and each senior judge shall indicate from time to time to the clerk the percentage of a full caseload that he or she elects to have assigned. The chief judge, with the consent of a judge, may remove that judge from any wheel temporarily to reduce the number of pending cases and prevent delay in the disposition of cases by a judge who is then overburdened by cases or due to ill health. The chief judge shall return that judge to the wheel only on consent of the judge. The clerk shall upon request inform any attorney or party of the identity of judges whose names have been removed from a wheel.

(i) Visiting Judge.

The chief judge shall approve the assignment or transfer of cases to a visiting judge.

(j) Proceedings After Assignment.

All proceedings in a case after assignment shall be conducted by the assigned judge, except as provided by these guidelines.

(k) Recusal.

A judge or magistrate judge may recuse himself or herself at any time in accordance with U.S.C. § 455. This guideline takes precedence over any other guideline.

(l) Appeals-Assignment on Reversal or Remand.

(1) In a criminal case upon reversal of a judgment and a direction for retrial or resentence, on receipt of the mandate of the appellate court the clerk shall randomly select a different judge to preside over the case. Notwithstanding this provision the chief judge may order the case assigned to the original presiding judge to avoid placing an excessive burden on another judge.

(2) In a civil case upon reversal the case shall remain assigned to the judge who was previously assigned, unless the chief judge or his designee orders otherwise.

50.3 Related Cases: Motion for Consolidation of Cases

(a) "Related" Case Defined.

A case is "related" to another for purposes of this guideline when, because of the similarity of facts and legal issues or because the cases arise from the same transactions or events, a substantial saving of judicial resources is likely to result from assigning both cases to the same judge and magistrate judge.

(b) Civil Cases.

By way of illustration and not limitation, a civil case may be deemed "related" to an earlier case when the civil case: (A) relates to property involved in an earlier case, or (B) involves the same factual issue or grows out of the same transaction as does an earlier case, or (C) involves the validity or infringement of a patent already in suit in a prior case.

(c) Criminal Cases.

Criminal cases are "related" only when (A) a superseding indictment is filed, or (B) more than one indictment or information is filed against the same defendant or defendants, or (C) when an application is filed by a person in custody that relates to a prior action. Other cases will be deemed "related" only upon written application by a party, upon not less than ten days' notice to each other party, to the judge presiding over the earlier assigned case. The application will be granted only if substantial saving of judicial resources is likely to result from assigning both cases to the same judge, or is otherwise in the interest of justice.

(d) Designation of Related Case; Service of Civil Information Sheet.

If the party filing a case believes it to be related to a prior case, whether pending or closed, the party shall so indicate on the information sheet, specifying for each such case the title and the docket number, if any. A copy of the information sheet shall be served with the summons and complaint or petition for removal of the action. A case designated by the filing party as related shall be forwarded by the Clerk's Office to the judge before whom the earlier filed case is or was pending, together with a memorandum stating that the case has been assigned as a related case and identifying the prior case to which it is asserted to be related. The memorandum shall be filed in the record and noted in the docket. Cases determined by the judge not to be related shall be reassigned by random selection. Each attorney in a case has an ongoing duty to advise the clerk in writing upon learning of any facts indicating that his or her case may be related to any other pending case.

(e) Assignment of Related Cases.

Related cases shall be assigned by the clerk to the judge to whom was assigned the case with the lowest docket number in the series of cases. The clerk shall advise the judge of such assignment of a "related case." In the interest of judicial economy, all habeas corpus petitions filed by the same petitioner shall be deemed related. Likewise, all pro se civil actions filed by the same individual shall be deemed related.

(f) Case Erroneously Assigned as Related.

The designation of cases as related may be corrected sua sponte by the judge to whom they are assigned, by returning to the clerk for reassignment cases erroneously so assigned.
