LCSA LETTER: 03-13

ALL IV-D DIRECTORS

SUBJECT: CALIFORNIA PARENT LOCATOR SERVICE TRANSFER

This letter is to notify local child support agencies (LCSAs) of the July 1, 2003 transfer of the California Parent Locator Service (CPLS) from the Office of the Attorney General to the California Department of Child Support Services (DCSS). The transfer of program responsibilities was made pursuant to legislation passed in 2002. The CPLS is now under the leadership of DCSS' Director Curtis L. Child, organizationally housed within the Technology Services Division managed by Deputy Director Joan Obert.

Listed below are new mailing and email addresses:

California Parent Locator Service
California Department Child Support Services
P.O. Box 419073
Rancho Cordova, CA 95741-9073

Email: firstname.lastname@dcss.ca.gov

To ensure all CPLS correspondence is received, the previous mailing and email addresses will remain in service until September 30, 2003. The physical address, telephone, and fax numbers will remain unchanged. Please refer to the California Roster of Child Support Services for additional information.

We are very excited about the transfer as it combines the history and comprehensive locate service CPLS provides with the strength and vision of DCSS. This powerful combination will enable all of us in child support to work even more closely together for the betterment of families and children.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact Debra Harvey at (916) 323-5664.

Sincerely,

JOAN OBERT
Deputy Director
Technology Services Division
