POSTAL SERVICE

Verification Procedures for Second-Class Publications

AGENCY: Postal Service.

ACTION: Proposed procedure.

SUMMARY: The Postal Service proposes to revise its procedures for determining whether authorized second-class publications continue to meet the applicable eligibility requirements and whether the proper amount of postage is paid on the mailings of these publications. Under the revised procedures, the Postal Service will conduct a postage payment review of all publications at least once a year at the time of mailing of one of the issues of the publications to be reviewed. A separate eligibility review will be scheduled only in certain instances. To facilitate the eligibility review, the publisher of an authorized second-class publication will be required to provide circulation data to the Postal Service before the review is undertaken.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before February 21, 1995.

ADDRESSES: Written comments should be mailed or delivered to the Manager, Business Mail Acceptance, U.S. Postal Service, 475 L'Enfant Plaza SW, above address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
Edward Mayhew, (212) 613-8747.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with its statutory responsibilities, the Postal Service must ensure that authorized second-class
second-class eligibility requirements and that these publications pay the proper amount of postage on mailings.
See 39 U.S.C. 404, 3685.

Verifications of publications are one of the means used to achieve these goals. Currently, the Postal Service schedules a second-class publication for review every 1 to 3 years, depending on the number of original entries authorized at the post office conducting the review. The review procedure includes verification of the accuracy of
