SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The HEP program assists migrant and seasonal farmworkers to obtain a general education diploma (GED) and to be placed in postsecondary education or training, career positions, or the military. By locating the programs at IHEs, migrant and seasonal farmworkers also have opportunities to attend cultural events, academic programs, and other educational and cultural activities usually not available to them. The CAMP program assists migrant and seasonal farmworkers to successfully complete the first academic year of study in the college or university, and provides follow-up services to help students continue in postsecondary education.

Applicants should be aware that the selection criteria for awarding grants, and the 15 points for prior performance, have changed since the last grant competition. The selection criteria used to review applications, including the criterion for awarding points for prior performance, as required by the program statute are included in the application package.

The Congress has appropriated $9,000,000 for HEP and $4,000,000 for CAMP for FY 1999, which is an increase of approximately 18% for HEP and 92% for CAMP over the 1998 appropriation.
