

Nomination Form

2006 Crime Laboratory Development Symposium: Organizational Communication
May 8–11, 2006—Atlanta, Georgia

A Partnership of the FBI Laboratory, Georgia Tech College of Management, and the Carlson School of Management, University of Minnesota

DUE DATE: February 1, 2006

Name: _____

Title: _____

Laboratory: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Phone number: (_____) _____

E-mail: _____

of years in current position _____ Do you regularly attend the annual ASCLD meeting? Yes/No of years with this laboratory/system _____ # of years in forensics _____

of people you supervise directly _____ # of employees at your laboratory location _____

Highest level of education completed:		Indicate symposia you have previously attended:
_____ High School	Field of study _____
_____ Associate's	_____
_____ Bachelor's	_____
_____ Master's	_____
_____ Doctorate	_____
		_____ 2002 St. Louis, Missouri
		_____ 2003 Minneapolis, Minnesota
		_____ 2004 Minneapolis, Minnesota
		_____ 2005 Ann Arbor, Michigan

List several topics in communication that you would like to have addressed during the symposium:

The FBI Laboratory will be providing the following as part of the 2006 symposium: symposium content and supporting materials; transportation to the symposium city; lodging for May 7–11; breakfast, lunch, and breaks during the symposium; and one banquet dinner. Additional information will be provided in the registration package. This form must be submitted by February 1, 2006, for consideration. Substitutions will be considered on an individual basis. We expect a high level of interest and reserve the right to offer a vacated position to the next applicant on the waiting list. Once selected for attendance, you will be provided with a packet of information, including travel, lodging, and course selection.

Submit applications to:
Fax: + 1-703-632-8285

Questions should be directed to:
Anja Einseln + 1-703-632-8292
anja.einseln@ic.fbi.gov

Estimated delivery date for registration packets is March 1. Please retain a copy of this form for your records.