Retirement, Health, and Life Insurance Coverage for Certain Employees of the District of Columbia Under the National Capital Revitalization and Self- Government Improvement Act of 1997

AGENCY: Office of Personnel Management.

ACTION: Interim rule with request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is issuing interim regulations to implement the provisions of sections 11202, 11232, and 11246 of the National Capital Revitalization and Self-Government Improvement Act of 1997. These provisions of the Act require that nonjudicial employees of the District of Columbia Courts, and, under certain conditions, the District of Columbia Corrections Trustee and the District of Columbia Pretrial Services, Defense Services, Parole, Adult Probation and Offender Supervision Trustee (Trustees) and their respective employees (Trustee Employees) be considered Federal employees for purposes of Federal retirement, health, and life insurance coverage. The Act requires that judicial employees (judges) of the District of Columbia Courts be considered Federal employees for the purposes of Federal health, and life insurance coverage. These regulations are necessary to put the new coverage into effect.

DATES: Interim rules effective October 1, 1997; comments must be received on or before December 1, 1997.

ADDRESSES: Send comments to John E. Landers, Chief, Retirement Policy Division; Retirement and Insurance Service; Office of Personnel

Management; P.O. Box 57; Washington, DC 20044; or deliver to OPM, Room 4351, 1900 E Street, NW., Washington, DC. Comments may also be submitted by electronic mail to combox@opm.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Patrick Jennings, (202) 606-0299 concerning retirement coverage, or Karen Leibach (202) 606-0004 concerning health and life insurance coverage.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The National Capital Revitalization and Self-Government Improvement Act of 1997 (the Act), title XI of Public Law 105-33, 111 Stat. 251, was enacted on August 5, 1997. Section 11202 of the Act establishes a District of Columbia Department of Corrections Trustee, and section 11232 of the Act establishes a District of Columbia Pretrial Services, Defense Services, Parole, Adult Probation and Offender Supervision Trustee. These sections of the Act require a former Federal employee appointed with a break in service of 3 days or less to be treated as a Federal employee for the purpose of chapter 83 (the Civil Service Retirement System—CSRS) or chapter 84 (the Federal Employees Retirement System—FERS); chapter 87 (the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Program—FEGLI); and chapter 89 (the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program—FEHB) of title 5, United States Code, during service as a Trustee or Trustee employee.

Section 11246 of the Act requires nonjudicial employees of the District of Columbia Courts to be treated as Federal employees for the purposes of chapters 81 (relating to compensation for work injuries), 83, 84, 87, and 89. This section also requires judges of the District of Columbia Courts to be treated as Federal employees for the purposes of chapters 81 (relating to compensation for work injuries), 87, and 89.

As employees of the District of Columbia Government, employees of the District of Columbia Courts have not been eligible for coverage under FERS and, therefore, were not allowed to elect to be covered by FERS. When the regulations take effect, nonjudicial employees of the District of Columbia Courts will be deemed to be Federal employees for this purpose and, because they will not have had an opportunity to elect FERS coverage, these regulations will allow them to elect FERS if now subject to CSRS, in the same way as new Federal hires who are eligible for CSRS may elect FERS.

Federal employees may be detailed to the District of Columbia Department of Corrections Trustee or the District of Columbia Pretrial Services, Defense Services, Parole, Adult Probation and Offender Supervision Trustee under the provisions of part 334 of title 5, Code of Federal Regulations, which addresses assignments of Federal employees to State governments, and the District of Columbia. The Act authorizes such details to a Trustee at the request of a Trustee with the approval of the head of the employee's Federal department or agency. Employees detailed under part 334 retain their status as Federal employees and, therefore, retain Federal benefits coverage.

With respect to employees of the District of Columbia Courts, section 11246(b)(3) of the Act requires that the amendments shall apply with respect to all months beginning after the date on which OPM issues regulations to implement the new coverage provisions. Accordingly, the amendments made by section 11246 of the Act are effective October 1, 1997.

With respect to the District of Columbia Department of Corrections Trustee and the District of Columbia Pretrial Services, Defense Services, Parole, Adult Probation and Offender Supervision Trustee, and the Trustees' employees, sections 11202 and 11232 of the Act do not establish a specific effective date for the beginning of Federal employee status. Accordingly, the regulations to implement the new coverage provisions for a Trustee and a Trustee's employees become effective on the date of a Trustee's appointment.

In addition, these regulations make technical amendments to retirement coverage provisions governing employees of the District of Columbia Financial Responsibility and Management Assistance Authority, conforming amendments to provisions governing reemployed annuitants, and non-substantive clarifying amendment to retirement coverage provisions governing certain employees of St. Elizabeths Hospital.

Waiver of General Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Under section 553(b) (3)(B) and (d)(3) of title 5, United States Code, I find that good cause exists for waiving the general notice of proposed rulemaking and for making these rules effective in less than 30 days. These regulations will affect the retirement and insurance coverage of certain employees of the District of Columbia Courts on and after October 1, 1997, and the retirement and insurance coverage of a Trustee and the Trustee's employees on and after the appointment of the Trustee. Publication of a general notice on proposed rulemaking would be contrary to the public interest because it would delay the commencement of Federal employee benefits of employees of the District of Columbia Courts and eligible individuals employed during the initial staffing of the District of Columbia Department of Corrections Trustee, and the District of Columbia Pretrial Services, Defense Services, Parole, Adult Probation and Offender Supervision Trustee.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

I certify that this regulation will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because the regulation will only affect a small number of former Federal employees of the Trustee of the District of Columbia Department of Corrections and the Trustee of District of Columbia Pretrial Services, Defense Service, Parole, Adult Probation and Offender Supervision, and employees of the District of Columbia Courts.
