YOUR RIGHTS

Before we ask you any questions or you make any statement, you must understand your rights.

- You have the right to remain silent and refuse to answer any questions at any time.
- Anything you say or do can be used against you in a court of law or other proceedings.
- You have the right to talk to a lawyer for advice before answering any questions and to have a lawyer with you during any questioning now or in the future.
- If you cannot afford a lawyer, one will be provided for you without cost.
- If you decide to answer questions now, you have the right to stop answering questions at any time you desire.

I have read this statement of my rights and I understand what my rights are. I am willing to make a statement and answer questions. I understand and know what I am doing. No promises or threats have been made against me and no pressure or coercion of any kind has been used against me.
