Subject: Legacy program

This program to save zombie banks instead of the public is an outrage. The idea is theft on the grandest scale. The bankers are pigmen stealing our childrens future. Dont think were all dumb and don't know what's happening here. It's called gaming the system. They will buy each others assets at a price that they are not even close to worth and stick it to the taxpayers.

You are all traitors and need to be relieved of your duties..I look forward to the day when the revolution comes and all the bankers, govt. agencies, congress, ratings agencies, wall street, hedge funds and insurance companies are history..

Your programs are full of lies and deceit. A well informed citizen.
