Subject: Docket Comments - January 20, 2004

Greetings from the Regulations.gov website!

As part of our public service to increase participation in federal government regulatory activities, the federal government's central online rulemaking portal, Regulations.Gov, accepts public comments on federal agency rulemakings open for public comment and transmits these comments once per day to the proper agency.

This message transmits public comments and related documentation submitted on your agency's rulemakings through the Regulations.Gov website. Comment files and attachments have been compressed into a zip file to ease transmission through agency e-mail systems. An Unzip program will be required to extract the attached files.

Please distribute these comments to the appropriate rulemaking dockets. If you have questions, please send e-mail to: comments@comments.regulations.gov.

Thank You!

I am in favor of the petition, and urge the FEC to adopt it. The public should have access to materials in closed enforcement cases. Thank you.
