

Help Support Wildlife Viewing Activities in Washington

Sign up to get your "Wild On Washington" Vehicle License Plate!

If I sign the signature sheet, am I legally obligated to purchase a Wild on Washington license plate? The petitions are not legally binding, but provide a method for contacting you with following up information, when (and if) the plates become available.

What, exactly, is a Wild On Washington license plate? It is a specialized license plate, featuring the majestic bald eagle and a glorious Washington sunset, with the "WW" designation, for "Wild on Washington." It is a great way to add color and beauty to your car, truck or motorcycle.

Is this in addition to the Mount Rainier background? No, it is an alternative.

When will it be available? If adopted by the Special License Plate Review Board and the 2005 Washington Legislature, Wild on Washington license plates would go on sale January 1, 2006.

How much will it cost? For the first year, the fee is $40 plus any additional license plate expenses. For renewals, the fee drops to $30.

The term "wildlife viewing activities" includes but is not limited to:

- Initiating partnerships with communities to jointly develop watchable wildlife projects*
- Building infrastructure to serve wildlife viewers*
- Assisting and training communities in conducting wildlife watching events*
- Developing destination wildlife viewing corridors and trails,*
- Tours*
- Maps*
- Brochures and travel aides*
- Offering grants to assist rural communities in identifying key wildlife attractions and ways to*
- protect and promote them*

SPECIAL LICENSE PLATE SERIES Wild On Washington - Bald Eagle
PROCEEDS WILL GO TO Washington Dept. of Fish and Wildlife	IN SUPPORT OF Wildlife Viewing Activities

The Department of Licensing requires that two thousand intended plate sets would be purchased for a proposed special license plate before it is considered for authorization. Sign our signature sheet to notify the Department of Licensing's office that you support the concept of the special license plate series indicated above, for Washington. We are not taking orders at this time, but only intentions to purchase the plates when they are available.

Proceeds from the special license plate sales will go to the organization above in support of the purpose above. The information acquired in this signature sheet will be used to notify you when the license plates are available in Washington.
