

The 2009 Course session has completed. The next occurrence of the National Aerial Firefighting Academy will be in January of 2010. Nominations for that session will be due by November 1, 2009 through your training organization to the Geographic Area Training Representatives.