SEC’s Collection of Information

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number. Section 8(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 generally requires investment companies to register with the Commission by filing a notification of registration. Paragraph (b)(3)(i) of Rule 6e-2 allows separate accounts qualifying for the exemptions under the rule to file a notification of a claim of exemption on Form N-6EI-1 in lieu of the notification of registration required by Section 8(a). The form will permit the Commission and the staff to monitor the number and types of separate accounts operating pursuant to the exemptions provided by the rule.
