OFFICE OF THE INDEPENDENT COUNSEL

Date of transcription

06/16/98

DANIEL CARBONETTI, white male, born [REDACTED] employed by the U.S. Secret Service (USSS) Uniform Division, was interviewed in the Office of the Independent Counsel, 1001 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Suite 490 North, in the presence of Department of Justice Attorneys, ANN L. WEISMANN and ERIC S. ANGEL. Also present were Associate Independent Counsels MARY ANNE WIRTH and EDWARD J. PAGE.

CARBONETTI was immediately advised of the personal and official identities of the interviewers and the purpose of the interview. CARBONETTI thereafter provided the following information:

CARBONETTI has been employed with the USSS Uniform Division since October of 1995. Initially, CARBONETTI was unassigned performing general uniform division duty; however, since October of 1997, CARBONETTI has been assigned to the Emergency Response Team.

CARBONETTI has never met MONICA LEWINSKY and to the best of CARBONETTI's recollection has not personally seen LEWINSKY.

From October of 1995 until October of 1997, CARBONETTI had no specific post assignment, but would "float" among the various duty posts within the White House.

CARBONETTI recalled only one occasion when he was assigned to the Oval Office area of the White House, [REDACTED]. This was on July 4, 1997, when CARBONETTI worked the [REDACTED].

CARBONETTI does not know BAYANI NELVIS.

CARBONETTI had no conversations with anyone relating to MONICA LEWINSKY prior to the recent news reports.

After the matter broke in the news, CARBONETTI recalls participating in one conversation with BRIAN SINDONI, another USS Uniform Division employee, who usually was assigned to the Southwest Gate of the White House. SINDONI told CARBONETTI of occasions, usually on a Thursday, Friday or Saturday evening, when MONICA LEWINSKY would come into the White House compound through the Southwest Gate. LEWINSKY would proceed to the West Wing, and within a few minutes there would be radio traffic indicating that the President was moving to the Oval Office, which is located in the West Wing. Usually on these visits, LEWINSKY would remain in the White House for approximately 45 minutes to one hour. Within a short time after LEWINSKY departed the White House, there would be [REDACTED] that the President was moving to the mansion.

CARBONETTI could not recall SINDONI telling him the dates or the frequency of LEWINSKY's visits to the White House, but CARBONETTI felt these visits occurred on more than one occasion.

CARBONETTI is not sure if SINDONI had actual knowledge of the above or if someone had told SINDONI of this. CARBONETTI has not told anyone else of this conversation with SINDONI. &a0v0H
