Office of Congressman Bill Foster

Dear Friend:

As you know, President Obama recently signed a historic $787 billion recovery package to address the deepening economic crisis we face. In February of this year, the economy shed over 600,000 jobs, and Illinois' unemployment rate rose to 7.9 percent. While not a perfect piece of legislation, the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) combines both long and short-term provisions to shore up the economy and reduce the tax burden on millions of middle class Americans. Through targeted investments, this legislation is expected to create or save 3.5 million jobs, including 148,000 in Illinois alone, and more than 9,000 in the 14th District.

This guidebook is meant as a resource for local governments, community organizations, businesses, and individuals seeking funding through the Recovery Act. My office will provide updates to this document as new information becomes available. While decisions regarding the use of recovery money are left up to the State of Illinois and relevant federal agencies, my staff is available to help guide constituents to potential funding sources. The sections of this guidebook explain the various sources of federal funding and detail how the money will be distributed—often through preexisting formulas or competitive grant programs. In most cases, the Recovery Act provides for a federal cost share of 100%, meaning local entities will not have to match federal funding. Keep in mind that the Recovery Act is earmark-free, so no individual lawmaker has the ability to appropriate funding for any specific project.

The Recovery Act requires the White House to maintain a Web site (<http://www.recovery.gov>) that details how federal money will be spent. The State of Illinois has also set up a Web site (<http://recovery.illinois.gov>) providing Illinois residents with state-specific information on the Recovery Act. I encourage you to consult these resources frequently, as they will be updated when federal and state agencies release plans for the distribution of recovery funding.

As always, I stand ready to assist you, and I hope the information in this guidebook proves useful. Please feel free to contact me with any questions, comments, or suggestions. For inquiries related to the Recovery Act, please contact Sue Klinkhamer in my Batavia office at (866) 324-6128, or email me at Recovery.Foster@mail.house.gov.

Sincerely,

Grants: Brownfields Evaluation and Clean-Up
Amount: $100 million was included for Brownfields projects
Type: Low interest loans, job training grants and technical assistance to local governments and non-profit organizations.

Awards under this program will be selected and distributed by the EPA's Washington Headquarters office. At the time this document was prepared, internal decisions were still being made by the department on how much of the funding will go towards current or new applicants. It is likely that the majority of this funding will be prioritized for entities that made applications through the annual grant application process for 2009.

Grant: Hazardous Substance Superfund Hazardous Waste Cleanup

Amount: $600 million

Administrator: Environmental Protection Agency

Provisions: Funds will be limited to the 1,255 sites on its National Priority List of superfund remedial sites. The superfund remedial program addresses contamination from uncontrolled releases at hazardous and toxic waste sites that threaten human health and environment.

Awards under this program will be selected and distributed by the EPA's Washington Headquarters office. All Recovery Act funding for the Superfund program will be directed to ongoing work items with no potentially responsible party (PRP). Evaluations of whether or not a site still has a valid PRP will be made at the time of program evaluations and cannot be delayed.

Energy

Grants: State Energy Efficiency Programs

Amount: $3.1 billion was included for the State Energy Program.

Type: States receive funding through a formula. All funds allocated for the State of Illinois through this program are used for home weatherization in line with the Weatherization Assistance Program below.

Description: States use grants to address energy priorities and program funding to adopt emerging renewable energy and energy efficiency technologies

Contact: Since all funds allocated to Illinois under this program are used for weatherization, contact information for the administration of these funds is the same as that program. As of March 10th Governor Quinn signed an executive order transferring State administration of the Weatherization Assistance Program from the Department Healthcare and Family Services to the Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity. This program is in transition and currently has no publicly available contact information.

Grants: Weatherization Assistance Program

Amount: $5 billion was included for the Weatherization Assistance Program. Provisions also expand the eligibility of low income households for the Weatherization Assistance Program and increasing the funding assistance level per dwelling (from $2,500 per dwelling to $6,500)

Type: States receive funding through a formula

Description: Provides energy efficiency measures in the homes of qualifying homeowners free of charge

Purpose: To assist low-income families reduce their energy bills by making their homes more energy efficient

Website: DOE info: <http://apps1.eere.energy.gov/weatherization/apply.cfm>
Illinois info: <http://www.weatherizationillinois.com/> (subject to change)

Contact: As of March 10th Governor Quinn signed an executive order transferring State administration of the Weatherization Assistance Program from the Department Healthcare and Family Services to the Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity. Grants: Energy Efficiency and Conservation Block Grant (EECBG)

Amount: $3.2 billion was included for EECBG.

Type: Competitive grants to government entities

Office: Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE)

Agency: U.S. Department of Energy

Purpose: To reduce fossil fuel emissions, decrease overall energy consumption, improve energy efficiency in the transportation, building, and other energy consuming sectors of the economies of eligible entities

Description: Assists states and local governments in implementing strategies to reduce fossil fuel emissions created as a result of activities within the jurisdictions of the eligible entities and reduce the total energy use. Activities eligible to receive funding include: conducting residential and commercial building energy audits; establishing financial incentives programs for energy efficiency improvements; grants to non-profits organizations to perform energy efficiency retrofits; developing/implementing programs to conserve energy used in transportation; developing and implementing building codes and inspections services to promote building energy efficiency; installing light emitting diodes (LEDs); and developing, implementing, and installing on or in any government building onsite renewable energy technology that generates electricity from renewable sources.

Of the $3.2 billion accounted for in the recovery package, $2.8 billion will be distributed to communities on a formula basis, and $400 million will be for nationally competitive grants. Formula allocations are based on 1) Resident population and 2) Daytime population, commercial and office space. Funds are generally allocated roughly 28% to State governments, 68% directly to municipalities and other local governments and 2% to Indian tribal governments.

Website: http://apps1.eere.energy.gov/wip/block_grants.cfm

Grants: Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE)

Amount: $16.8 billion was included for EERE

Type: Competitive grants to private sector, state and local governments, national labs, and universities

Agency: U.S. Department of Energy

Programs: 10 energy programs, including the Biomass Program; Building Technologies Program; Federal Energy Management Program; Geothermal Technologies Program; Hydrogen, Fuel Cells & Infrastructure Program; Industrial Technologies Program; Solar Energy Technologies Program; Vehicle Technologies; Wind & Hydropower Technologies Program; and Weatherization & Intergovernmental Program

This does not represent $16.8 billion for any one program, rather it represents the top line of funding that encompasses 10 other programs, most of which are listed below.

Website: www.eere.energy.gov/

Grants: Biomass Program

Amount: $800 million to be dedicated to projects related to biomass

Type: Competitive grants

Office: Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE)

Agency: U.S. Department of Energy

Activities: For research, development and demonstration for converting biomass resources to biofuels

Website: www.eere.energy.gov/biomass

Grants: Geothermal Technologies Program
Amount: $400 million to be dedicated for geothermal activities and projects
Type: Competitive grants
Office: Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE)
Agency: U.S. Department of Energy
Activities: Research, development and demonstration efforts that emphasize the advancement of enhanced geothermal systems
Website: www.eere.energy.gov/geothermal

Grants: Advanced Battery Manufacturing
Amount: $2 billion was included for Advanced Battery Manufacturing grants to support the manufacturing of advanced vehicle batteries and components
Type: Competitive Grants to domestic manufacturing facilities
Office: Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE)
Agency: U.S. Department of Energy
Activities: For the manufacturing of advanced batteries and components; and to provide facility funding to manufacturers of advanced battery systems and vehicle batteries that are produced in the United States, including advanced lithium ion batteries, hybrid electrical systems, component manufacturers, and software designers
Website: www.eere.energy.gov

Grants: Alternative Fueled Vehicle Pilot Grant Program
Amount: $300 million was included for the Alternative Fueled Vehicles Pilot Grant Program
Type: Competitive Grant to state governments, local governments, metropolitan transportation authorities, air pollution control districts, and private or nonprofit entities.
Office: Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE) - Clean Cities Program
Agency: U.S. Department of Energy
Purposes: To establish a grant program through the DOE Clean Cities Program to encourage the use of plug-in electric drive vehicles or other emerging electric vehicle technologies.
Activities: Funds used for the acquisition of alternative fueled vehicles, fuel cell vehicles or hybrid vehicles, including buses for public transportation and ground support vehicles at public airports. The installation or acquisition of infrastructure necessary to directly support an alternative fueled vehicle, fuel cell vehicle, or hybrid vehicle project funded by the grant also eligible.
Website: www.eere.energy.gov/cleancities

Grants: Transportation Electrification
Amount: $400 million for Transportation Electrification grant projects.
Type: Competitive Grant to states, local governments, and metropolitan transportation authorities
