CASE INFORMATION AND PRIVACY ACT RELEASE FORM

Information Release:

The Privacy Act of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect you from any unauthorized use and exchange of personal information by federal agencies. Any information that a federal agency has on file regarding your dealings with the United States government may not, with a few exceptions, be given to another agency or Member of Congress without your written permission. Family members, friends, or other interested parties generally may not authorize on your behalf the release of information covered by the Privacy Act.

Please, briefly describe the situation for which you are requesting assistance:

I hereby request the assistance of the Office of Representative Joe Courtney to resolve the matter described above. I authorize Representative Joe Courtney, and his staffs, to receive information that they might need to provide this assistance. The information I have provided to Representative Joe Courtney is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief. The assistance I have requested from Congressman Courtney's office is in no way an attempt to evade or violate any federal, state, or local law.
