

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
CRIMINAL DIVISION
OFFICE OF OVERSEAS PROSECUTORIAL DEVELOPMENT, ASSISTANCE AND TRAINING
INTERMITTENT LEGAL ADVISOR IN TAIWAN

---

The Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training (OPDAT), Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, seeks an experienced DOJ attorney or Assistant United States Attorney to serve as an Intermittent Legal Advisor (ILA) for an anti-human trafficking assistance program in Taiwan. The position is located in Taipei, Taiwan, and the term of the assignment in Taipei is for 90 days. This is a reimbursable detail.

About the Office:

The mission of the Criminal Division's Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training (OPDAT) is to develop and administer technical and developmental assistance designed to enhance the capabilities of foreign justice sector institutions and their law enforcement personnel, so those institutions and their personnel can more effectively combat terrorism, organized crime, corruption, financial crimes, trafficking in persons and other types of crime, in a manner consistent with the rule of law, and can more effectively cooperate regionally and with the United States in combating such crime.

Responsibilities and Opportunities Offered:

The ILA will present the U.S. Department of Justice and OPDAT in the development and implementation of justice sector technical assistance programs that will focus on human trafficking issues. The ILA will work with appropriate host country officials to assess human trafficking problems in Taiwan. They will then be responsible for developing and implementing an effective anti-trafficking program. The program could involve providing advice on draft legislation, existing laws, and proposed regulations. The ILA would also be expected to take the lead in improving prosecutorial and judicial capacities by presenting skills development training programs.

Required and preferred Qualifications:

The applicant must have the ability to function effectively in an international, multi-cultural environment; be mature, flexible, and self-sufficient; be able to efficiently initiate and manage work projects; and possess extensive prosecutorial experience. Comparative law or other experience gained working in an Asian context is desired but not necessary. Mandarin language skills also preferred.

Application Process

Interested applicants should e-mail a resume and cover letter as soon as possible, but not later than August 14, 2009, to the attention of Beth Truebell, Program Manager, OPDAT, and Erin Hakim, Program Analyst, Asia Pacific Region to the following address: Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training (OPDAT), 10TH and Pennsylvania Avenues, NW, Washington, DC 20530. Faxed or email submissions are acceptable. The fax number is (202) 616-6770. The e-mail addresses are: beth.truebell2@usdoj.gov; and erin.hakim@usdoj.gov

Deadline Date:

Applications will be accepted until August 14, 2009.

Salary Information:

Current salary and years of litigation experience will determine the appropriate salary. The possible salary range is GS-14 ($102,271 - $133,543 per annum) to GS-15 ($120,830 - $153,200 per annum).
