

NATIONAL CREDIT UNION ADMINISTRATION
COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT REVOLVING LOAN FUND

Footnotes to Financial Statement: January 31, 2008

(1) The Community Development Revolving Loan Fund for Credit Unions (the “CDRLF”) was established by an act of Congress (Public Law 96-123, November 20, 1979) to stimulate economic development in low-income communities. The National Credit Union Administration (“NCUA”) and the Community Services Association (“CSA”) jointly adopted Part 705 of NCUA Rules and Regulations, governing administration of the CDRLF.

The purpose of the CDRLF is to stimulate economic activities in the communities served by low-income credit unions which will result in increased income, ownership and employment opportunities for low-wealth residents, and other economic growth. The policy of NCUA is to revolve the loans to qualifying credit unions as often as practical in order to gain maximum impact on as many participating credit unions as possible.
