

Money Smart

Offered by: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and
U.S. Department of Labor

Target Credit

Union Participants: Adults outside the financial mainstream

Program Objective:

1. Enhance money skills and create positive banking relationships.
2. Help fight predatory lending.
3. Encourage financial institutions to identify untapped markets.
4. Assist consumer in shaping their financial future.

Credit Union

Eligibility: Available to all credit unions

Program Features And Requirements: Ten instructor-led training modules, 60 minutes each, including:

- * Comprehensive guide for instructors
- * Take-home booklet for participants
- * Overhead slides

- | | |
|-----------------------|--------------------|
| 1. Bank on It | 6. Keep it Safe |
| 2. Borrowing Basics | 7. To Your Credit |
| 3. Check It Out | 8. Charge It Right |
| 4. Money Matters | 9. Learn to Own |
| 5. Pay Yourself First | 10. Your Own Home |

Available in English, Spanish, Chinese, Korean, Vietnamese
Available with Interactive computer based instructions.

Program Cost: Free

Contact: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
Attn: Money Smart Order Desk, PA-1730-7070B
550 17th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20429
Voice mailbox: (202) 942-3404
Facsimile: (202) 942-3098
Website: www.fdic.gov/consumers/consumer/moneysmart