

Dear Sir

My husband actually looks at the labels in his new shirts to make sure they're made in the USA. What is being proposed is actually fraudulent to the consumer. Are you afraid to let us choose between imports and things made by our own countrymen? This proposal is ridiculous and only serves corporate greed. Please listen to the people * don't be deceptive to us.

Loretta Molnar

Molnar
2655 W. 400 North
Greenfield, IN
46140