

Cooperative Agreement between the National Plant Data Center and

This agreement is developed between the USDA Natural Resource Conservation Service, National Plant Data Center, (hereafter, NPDC) and _____ (hereafter, the Contributor). The agreement covers the submission and use of slides, digital photos, or line drawings for inclusion into the PLANTS photo gallery of the PLANTS Web site.

Description of Submission: _____

The NPDC agrees:

To provide full credit to the photographer and his/her institution whenever the image is displayed in any way, and also to provide an indication of copyright if this applies. The NPDC reserves the right not to use or display any image.

The Contributor agrees:

To provide the NPDC with accurately identified images of plants from the United States of America, its territories, or protectorates that are supported by as much information as possible as outlined in Metadata above.

To grant the NPDC the right to modify and display images and make them freely available according to the PLANTS Conditions of Image and Data Use.
