

Sharon Daigle

Sharon Daigle is an NCUA supervisory examiner headquartered in Orlando, Florida. As supervisory examiner, Sharon oversees the NCUA examination and supervision program in federally insured credit unions in central Florida, northeast Florida and southeast Georgia. Sharon transitioned into this position in 2005. Prior to that, Sharon served as the Atlanta region Director, Division of Insurance overseeing field of membership expansions, mergers and insurance coverage issues for credit unions throughout the Atlanta region.

Sharon began her career with NCUA in 1991 as a district examiner headquartered in Baton Rouge, Louisiana and later in Mobile, Alabama. In 1996 Sharon was promoted within the Atlanta region holding regional analyst positions in the Division of Supervision and later in the Division of Insurance. In 1999, Sharon was promoted to the division director position. Sharon supervised this Division of Insurance through key evolutions including implementation of the Credit Union Membership Access Act and expansion of the NCUA Small Credit Union Program among others. Sharon was recognized as the Atlanta region Supervisor of the Year in 2002. Currently as supervisory examiner Sharon and her team have oversight of more than 120 federally insured credit unions with over $13 billion in assets located in Florida and Georgia.

Sharon holds a M.S. degree in Computer Information Systems from the University of Phoenix and a B.S. degree in Accounting from the University of Southwestern Louisiana. Sharon is a 1996 graduate of the USDA Graduate School Executive Leadership Program.