

July 24, 2006

Colleagues and IdM Professionals -

We hope you will review our role management standards project at the INCITS website and consider joining the working group who will be ratifying the technical specification in the coming months.

The following information will direct you to our white paper, archives and datasheets -

InterNational Committee for Information Technology Standards (INCITS)

Cyber Security (CS1) Technical Committee
CS1.1 Role Based Access Control Task group
Objectives, Activities, and Status

OBJECTIVES

Current work item:

CS1/05-0082 Project Proposal – Requirements for the Implementation of Role Based Access Control

- Clarify and specify what compliance with the RBAC Standard (INCITS 359-2004) American National Standard for Information Technology - Role-Based Access Control) consists of
- Define interoperability requirements for RBAC products

Possible future work items:

- Standardize a role engineering process
- Develop a reference implementation
- Internationalize the ANSI RBAC standard

ACTIVITIES AND STATUS

Meetings (3), next meeting on 14 August in Gaithersburg, Maryland
Draft RBAC implementation standard
Draft use cases for implementation standard

INCITS CS1.1 – Invitation to Participate

October 4, 2006

Page 2

Next Steps

Working meeting to further develop draft implementation standard

Call for Participation

Voting membership in INCITS TCs, TGs, and SGs is open to all directly and materially affected parties that meet attendance and voting requirements and pay the designated service fee(s).

To apply for membership, you may send email to INCITS at <<mailto:incits@itic.org>> incits@itic.org providing them with the information requested in the <<http://www.incits.org/membership.pdf>> membership application. You may also fax the application to 202-638-4922. If you have specific questions regarding membership, please feel free to contact Lynn Barra (<<mailto:Lbarra@itic.org>>Lbarra@itic.org) at 202-626-5739.

Membership fee information and membership form can be found on the INCITS web site <http://www.incits.org/>.

Sincerely,

TIM WEIL – CISA/CISSP
ASSOCIATE

BOOZ ALLEN HAMILTON INC.